Nastase beat by Connors

OTTAWA (CP) — Jimmy Connors defeated Ile Nastase 6-4, 6-2 in a tennis match before 4,000 fans in Ottawa on Thursday, his third such victory in as many nights.

The three-part, three-city series was billed as an exhibition event, but Connors played agressively from start to finish.

In a preliminary event, Kathy Jordan whipped Marjorie Blackwood of Ottawa 8-3, also for the third consecutive night, in a "pro set," where the winner is the first to take eight games, instead of the traditional six.

Although he defeated Nastase, Connors said: "Everytime we play we have great matches — no matter what the score.

"I've been hitting my ball well since the start of the year. And even with Nasty's record in the last couple of years, he's still a tough player. He still has that touch."

Blackwood, the No. 1-ranked female Canadian, matched against Jordan, ranked 10th in the world, said she "wanted to do well but you can't get away with bad shots against Kathy."

"Sh-t Jordan) was hitting a lot of balls back that I didn't think she'd get. She's a really good net player."

In the earlier matches in Toronto and Detroit, Connors won 6-3, 6-4, and 7-6, 6-3. Jordan won 8-5, 8-3.

Braves sweep series

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Atlanta manager Bobby Cox is pleased as punch these days with his club's 4-0 record.

"Winning will stitch up everything," Cox said Thursday night after the Braves used two infield singles in a two-run ninth inning rally to defeat San Diego Padres 8-7 for a sweep of their three-game National League baseball series.

Atlanta dropped nine of its first 10 games this year before the Padres came to town on the heels of a shakeup in which third baseman Bob Horner was optioned to the minor leagues and the Braves' ownership announced it wanted to trade outfielder Gary Matthews.

Brian Asselstine delivered the game-winning blow, a single to centre off Rollie Fingers, 2-1. It came after Larvell Blanks avoided the front end of a double play on a grounder to short and the infield hits by Chris Chambliss and Jeff Burroughs, with Blanks scoring on Burroughs's slow roller to short.

"They played a little bit cautiously in the field, I thought," Cox said of the two ninth-inning hits. "I know the infield is bumpy, but I think (Dave) Cash was trying to get the best hop he could and Chris just beat it out."

"I just laid back," said Cash, the San Diego second baseman. "I thought I had him. I just messed up."

In the only other National League contest, Los Angeles Dodgers defeated San Francisco Giants 5-2 in 10 innings. Chicago White Sox dumped Boston Red Sox 9-3 in the lone American League game.

San Diego had taken a 7-6 lead on Willie Montanez's two-run homer in the eighth and the ninth-inning collapse left Padres manager Jerry Coleman in no mood to discuss the game.

"I saw it and you saw it and I don't know what to say. I have nothing to say."

Dodgers 5 Giants 2

Dusty Baker's three-run homer in the 10th inning lifted Los Angeles Dodgers past San Francisco.

Reggie Smith, who had homered in the fourth, singled off Gary Lavelle to start the winning rally. Randy Moffitt replaced Lavelle and gave up a single to Steve Garvey before Baker's game-winning homer.

Jack Clark homered for the Giants.

White Sox 9 Red Sox 3

Lamar Johnson drove in four runs, including the tiebreaker in the seventh inning, as Chicago beat Boston. He knocked in a first-inning run with a single and hit a two-run homer, his fourth, in the third. Then he picked up his 17th run-batted-in, tops in the league, in the seventh when Claudell Washington scored on his one-out grounder.

Washington, Johnson and Bob Molinaro had three hits apiece as the White Sox pounded four Boston pitchers for 19 hits, equalling the AL high for the season so far.

Three golfers share the lead

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Chip Beck, in a surprise share of the lead after the first round of the $250,000 New Orleans Open golf tournament, says he knows what to expect.

"I know what they're going to say," said Beck, 23, after posting a no-bogey 66 in a tie for the lead with defending champion Hubert Green and Tom Watson. "They're going to say, 'That guy will fold, he'll choke.' "

Beck never before has had a lead and has not finished higher than 31st in his brief, two-year tour career.

"I know I've got to play good to stay anywhere around the lead. But I figure I'm going to play good.

"I know what it is to play a bad round. I figure I can prevent that. I'm starting to get some confidence in my ability. I'm looking forward to the next couple of rounds."

Like Beck, Green birdled all the par-five holes and did not make a bogey in a solid effort over the 7,086-yard Lakewood Country Club.

"We're not even into the golf tournament yet," said Green. "We're just out here having fun, getting in position."

Watson, who scored his third victory of the season last week in the Tournament of Champions, played his last seven holes at six-under par to grab his share of the lead.

"I just got hot," said Watson. "Honestly, that's the best score I could have shot today."

Lee Trevino, who once won this tournament without making a bogey, topped a group of nine players at 67, a single stroke off the lead.

Also at five under par were D. A. Weibring, Rod Curl, Mike Reid, Mark Lye, Bill Kratzert, Tom Jenkins, Allen Miller and Mark Phell, a winner last week in Tallahassee.

Jim Nelford of Burnaby, B. C., the only Canadian in the event, shot an opening-round 73.
