Junior stars spark Canada

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Canada, with goals by two players from their world junior championship team, edged Sweden 4-3 Monday night in an exhibition game prior to the world hockey championship which opens Thursday.

Mark Habscheid and Randy Valischek, both members of the Canadian team which captured the world junior championship in January, each scored.

Claude Loiselle, another junior star who plays for Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League, and defenceman Rick Green of National Hockey League's Washington Capitals got the other goals.

The Swedes carried most of the play on the large European ice surface — Canada was outshot 46-17 — but couldn't capitalize on any of its seven power-play opportunities and goaltender Greg Millen of Hartford Whalers turned in some sparkling saves.

Canada took the lead at 7:40 of the opening period when Vaude Eriksson beat Swedish goalie Peter Lindmark of a screened slapshot from the left circle.

ERIKSSON TIES IT

Jan Eriksson tied it with 41 seconds left in the first period andthen Ulf Isaksson made it 2-1 for Sweden with 51 seconds gone in the middle period.

Ryan Walter of Washington set up Loiselle at 6:03 for the only other goal in the second period.

Habscheid, left unchecked, put Canada ahead to stay at 1:17 of the third period — 15 seconds after Mats Thelin had been sent off for crosschecking. Green then beat Lindmark with a slapshot at 4:05 for Canada's winninggoal.

Isaksson, Sweden's player of the year, cut Canada's lead to 4-3 at 7:44 on his second goal of the game.

Three Flyers added to team

TORONTO (CP) — Team Canada selected a mix of youth and experience as it announced the addition of 10 National Hockey League players to its team roster Monday that will compete in the 1982 world hockey championship.

The veterans selected are centres Bobby Clarke, 32, Darryl Sittler, 31, and left winger Bill Barber, 29, of Philadelphia Flyers, as well as defenceman John Van Boxmeer, 29, of Buffalo Sabres.

Also added to Team Canada, which opens the tournament in Helsinki with a game Thursday against Finland, were centres Bobby Smith, 24, of Minnesota North Stars, Dale Hawerchuk, 19, of Winnipeg Jets, right winger Dino Ciccarelli, 21, of Minnesota, defenceman Paul Reinhart, 22, of Calgary Flames, Craig Hartsburg, 21, of Minnesota and goaltender Gilles Meloche, 31, of the North Stars.

The addition of the 10 players Monday brings the Canadian roster to 15. The 10 NHL players replace 10 Junior A players who, along with seven previously selected NHL players, defeated Sweden 4-3 in an exhibition game Monday in Stockholm.

JOIN SEVEN PROS

The seven NHL players already in Europe are forwards Rick Vaive, 22, of Toronto Maple Leafs, Mark Osborne, 29, of Detroit Red Wings, Mike Gartner, 22, and Ryan Walter, 23, of Washington Capitals, defenceman Rick Green, 26, of Washington and goaltender Greg Millen, 24, of Hartford Whalers.

Defenceman Willie Huber of Detroit also was originally selected, but could not make the trip because of an injury suffered in the Red Wings' final game of the season. He was replaced for the game against Sweden by Jim Benning of the Leafs.

"That leaves the present roster at 10 forwards, four defencemen and two goaltenders," said Alan Eagleson, Canada's chief international hockey negotiator. "We've still left seven spots open for additional players to be named after the three remaining playoff series are complete."

Eagleson said only two players declined the invitation to represent Canada — Gilbert Perreault of Buffalo and Morris Lukowich of the Jets.

"Perreault informed me that his contract had expired and did not want to go under those circumstances, while Lukowich said he had personal commitments which prevented him from going."

Four newcomers on Russian squad

MOSCOW (Reuter) — Four newcomers are included in the Soviet Union squad announced Monday for the world hockey championship which gets under way Thursday in Finland.

The rookies on the defending champion's team are defenceman Vladimir Zubkov and forwards Igor Larionov, Alexander Kozhevnikov and Viktor Tyumenev.

Kozhevnikov, 23, was the leading scorer in the Soviet Union this season with 43 goals in 44 games for Moscow Spartak. Larionov, 21, has shown good form for Spartak's Central Red Army.

The squad is:

Goaltenders: Vladislav Tretiak (Red Army), Vladimir Myshkin (Dynamo). Reserve — Alexander Tychnykh (Red Army).

Defence: Valery Vasilyev (Dynamo), Vyacheslav Fetisov (Red Army), Alexei Kasatonov (Red Army), Sergei Babibov (Red Army), Irek Gimayev (Red Army), Vladimir Zubkov (Red Army).

Forwards: Vladimir Krutov (Red Army), Igor Larionov (Red Army), Nikolai Drozdetsov (Red Army), Viktor Shalimov (Spartak), Sergei Shepelev (Spartak), Sergei Kapustin (Spartak), Viktor Tyumenev (Spartak), Alexander Kozhevnikov (Spartak), Vladimir Golikov (Dynamo).

Edmonton stays alive with victory over Kings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Edmonton Oilers coach Glen Sather is unhappy with what he considers rough play by Los Angeles Kings, but he's not fighting mad.

"Our style of game is not to get involved in fights," Sather said Monday night after the Oilers beat the Kings 3-2, sending their best-of-five National Hockey League playoff series back to Edmonton for a deciding fifth game tonight. "One of our guys has bite marks on his back.

"I called the NHL (earlier Monday) and said, 'What are you going to do about this kind of stuff?' I was told the referee didn't see it so nothing could be done. This is not ice hockey.

"If we can win a game without retaliating, that's what we want to do."

Two other games tonight wrap up the NHL division semifinals — Quebec Nordiques at Montreal Canadiens and Pittsburgh Penguins at New York Islanders.

Sather said the Oilers played their style of hockey — staying out of trouble and out of the penalty box — in the victory evening the Smythe Division semifinal at 2-2.

Pat Hughes and Glenn Anderson scored second-period goals to pull the Oilers away from a 1-1 tie. Grant Fuhr turned in a fine performance in goal to key the victory, stopping 23 shots, several from close range while the Kings applied pressure thoughout the game.

TEMPERS HIGH

"It was a good game and Fuhr was the difference," said Kings coach Don Perry. "The tempers were high, but it wasn't a dirty game."

Fuhr said he expects the final game to be a replay of the other four — exciting and extremely competitive.

Fuhr, who had allowed a goal by Marcel Dionne in the first period, gave up another to Mike Murphy with 8:44 remaining in the game. But he held the Kings at bay the rest of the way to preserve the victory.

Jari Kurri scored the other Edmonton goal, tying the game 1-1 in the opening period.

The Kings limited the Edmonton centre Wayne Gretzky, who had 92 goals and 212 points in the regular season, to one assist. Gretzky has four goals and seven assists for the series.

Gretzky, for one, isn't shocked that the series is going down to the wire.

The winner takes on Vancouver Canucks in the Smythe Division best-of-seven final.

GRANT FUHR
. . . exciting

The Canucks earlier eliminated Calgary Flames in three straight games.

The Canadiens, who finished third in the overall points race behind the Islanders and Edmonton, also are faced with a fifth game at home, against provincial rival Nordiques.

TRAILED QUEBEC

The Canadiens were shocked by Edmonton last spring, eliminated in the preliminary round in three games. This spring, the Canadiens trailed Quebec 2-1 in games before dominating the Nordiques in the fourth game last Sunday in Quebec City, winning 6-2.

The winner gets to play Boston Bruins in the Adams Division final later in the week. The Bruins eliminated Buffalo Sabres in four games.

The Islanders, after blasting the Penguins 8-1 and 7-2 in the first two games at the Nassau Coliseum, saw the Penguins turn things around in Pittsburgh. Unaffected by the blowouts, the Penguins went home and downed the Islanders 2-1 in overtime in the third game last Saturday, then 5-2 in the fourth game Sunday.

The survivor meets New York Rangers in the Patrick Division final, setting up the possibility of an Islanders-Rangers clash. The Rangers beat Philadelphia Flyers in four games.

The Norris Division final is set, awaiting the outcome of the other series, with Chicago Black Hawks taking on St. Louis Blues. Chicago upset Minnesota North Stars in four games after the North Stars finished first in the division. The Blues eliminated Winnipeg Jets in four games, also.

Rawley stops Rangers' rally

New York Yankees finally got in the victory column thanks to an April Fool's Day trade by George Steinbrenner, owner of the American League baseball team.

The Yankees spoiled Texas Rangers' home opener 10-7 Monday night but were on the verge of blowing a 10-1 lead until left-handed reliever Shane Rawley dampened a ninth-inning rally with two strike outs.

Rawley was obtained April from Seattle Mariners by the Yankees for pitchers Gene Nelson and Bill Caudill and a player to be named later.

The Yankees built a nine run lead behind Willie Randolph's three-run homer and Dave Winfield's solo shot. But Texas rallied for four runs in the eighth and two more in the ninth.

Rawley struck out pinchhitters Leon Roberts and Bobby Johnson — the tying run — to earn the save and preserve starter Dave Righetti's first victory.

In other games it was Toronto Blue Jays 9, Detroit Tigers 5 and Chicago White Sox 3, Boston Red Sox 2.

In the National League, Atlanta Braves ran their record to 6-0 with a 6-1 victory over Cincinnati Reds. Bob Horner and Chris Chambliss slammed solo homers and Rafael Ramirez drove in a pair of runs, keeping alive one of the best starts in the club's history. Bob Walk, 2-0, got the win with relief help from Rick Camp. Bruce Berenyi, 1-1, took the loss.

Two solo home runs by George Hendrick, a pair of RBI singles by Ozzie Ginandez and a two-base fielding error by Pittsburgh shortstop Dale Berra gave St. Louis Cardinals a 5-4 win over the Pirates.

Keith Moreland drove in two runs with a homer and a single to lead Chicago Cubs to a 5-4 triumph over New York Mets.

Houston Astros edged Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1 when Phil Garner's 11th-inning single up the middle scored Jose Cruz with the winning run.

HOMERS OFF TANANA

Randolph's homer, only his 23rd as a major leaguer, came off lefty Frank Tanana, 0-1, making his Rangers debut.

"Tanana has changed," Randolph said. "I remember him when he threw hard.

"Now he's a smarter pitcher. He's effective. I was just lucky to get a good pitch to hit."

Blue Jays 9 Tigers 5

Second baseman Damaso Garcia, and pinch-hitters Garth Iorg and Barry Bonnell, supplied clutch hits in a five-run Toronto fourth inning rally to beat Detroit.

"The guys are really pulling for each other on this team," said Toronto manager Bobby Cox. "A lot of writers picked us to finish last and the guys are out to prove something."
