
New Westminster Makes Bid For Junior Franchise Here

Directors of the Okanagan-Mainline Junior "A" Hockey League heard an application from New Westminster for a franchise in its 1961-62 season at an organizational meeting here today.

Bob Fenton made the application on behalf of the Royal City club, and reported on the good relations between the New Westminster Juniors and the arena management.

The OMJHL, which already has a compact loop featuring teams from Penticton, Kelowna, Vernon and Kamloops, decided to draft a schedule allowing for games against New Westminster.

The election of officers saw Bill Brown of Vernon elected president. Vice-president is Bob Taylor of Kelowna, and directors Larry Buchan and Carl Sorensen, Vernon, Don White and Bob Taylor, Kelowna, Jack Mertz and Elmer Marchant, Penticton, and Bud Fraser and Doug Dawe, Kamloops.

Next directors meeting will take place at Vernon on Sunday, July 9.
