Vernon sniper fourth

Statistics released Monday by the B.C. Junior Hockey League show Jamie Steer of the Vernon Lakers ranks fourth in the Interior Division scoring race.

The rookie winger has accumulated 24 points, including 14 goals, in 11 games. The only other Vernon player in the division's top 10 is centre Greg Parnell. Parnell, who plays alongside Steer, is tied for seventh place with 20 points, including 14 assists.

Lakers, who share the division lead with Penticton Knights, are idle until Friday night when they visit the Summerland Buckaroos. On Saturday, the Salmon Arm Tigers entertain Vernon.
