Sockeyes win

RICHMOND, B.C. (CP) — Brian McFarlane scored five goals and added an assist as the Richmond Sockeyes trounced the visiting Abbotsford Falcons 11-1 in the only B.C. Junior Hockey League game Wednesday night.

Barry Kress had three goals and two assists for the Sockeyes, who held period leads of 1-0 and 4-0. Other Richmond scorers were Dwayne Wills, Sascha Pogor and Tony Bobbitt.

The only Falcon to score was Brad Trudeau, who spoiled goaltender Willie Popp's shutout bid at 10:03 of the third period.

Popp made 32 saves while Abbotsford's John Bukowski stopped 35 shots.
