

Canuck Centre Seiko Ouchi Receives Game Misconduct

Vernon Junior Canadians' hard - working centremen Seiko Ouchi received a game misconduct during a game against Kelowna Buckaroos here Tuesday.

Ouchi, among the high point-getters for the Canucks, picked up two goals in the home game. He received a ten-minute misconduct penalty late in the final period and was slapped with a game misconduct while on his way to the dressing room after the game for alleged use of abusive language.

OJHL president Bill Brown said Ouchi would sit out the Canadians' next scheduled game. Remarked the president, "We've got to crack down on this profanity within the league," The matter is expected to be taken up at a league meeting here Sunday.