Sockeyes in control of Coast final series

Rob Clark scored two goals to lead the Richmond Sockeyes to a 5-3 win over the Delta Flyers in B.C. Junior Hockey League playoff action, Friday, in Delta.

Richmond now has a 3-0 lead in their best-of-seven Coast Division final series.

The winner faces the Vernon Lakers in the best-of-nine BCJHL championship series. The first game is scheduled March 19, in Vernon.

Jason Talo, Dan Walton, and Keith Fair came up with the other Richmond goals.

Doug MacDonald, Todd Voshell, and Jeff Nottingham replied for Delta, which tied Richmond 1-1 after the first period and fell behind 3-2 after the second.

Delta outshot Richmond 30-28.

The fourth, and possibly final, game is slated for tonight in Delta.

B.C. Junior

Richmond 5 Delta 3

(Richmond leads best-of-seven semifinal 3-0)

Peace-Cariboo Junior

Prince George 8 Quesnel 3

(Prince George leads best-of-seven semifinal 2-0)

Canadian University