HOUNDS EVEN SERIES

CALGARY (CP) — The Notre Dame Hounds beat the Calgary Canucks 5-3 Monday night to extend the Centennial Cup Western Canada junior A hockey final series to a seventh and deciding game in Calgary tonight.

Dwayne Norris got the Hounds started with two first-period goals as the Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League champions took period leads of 2-0 and 3-1 and wrapped things up with an empty-net tally in the last minute of play.

Guy Sanderson, Jeff Batters and Llew McWana, who scored after the Canucks' goaltender was pulled for an extra forward, were the other Notre Dame marksmen.

The Canucks had a 37-27 edge in shots on goal but the Alberta Junior Hockey League champions ran faced solid goaltending by Hounds netminder Curtis Joseph and had to settle for goals by Jodi Hicks, Mike Bertamini and Mark Astley.

Calgary changed goalkeepers after falling behind 3-0 early in the second period, replacing starter Buddy Brazier with Corey Hirsch.

Notre Dame took 12 of 21 minor penalties and the game's lone misconduct.
