Show Rockets Tops

Kamloops Rockets soared to a run-away in all departments of the 12-game Okanagan playoff series with one exception.

Centre John Strong of Kelowna interrupted Rockets domination of the scoring statistics by totalling eight goals and four assists for a fifth place tie with three of the Kamloops forwards.

Centre Eric Shishido won the scoring honors with a five-point spread over Murray Owen, mainly on his advantage in the assists department.

Goalie Harvey Budarick bested teammate Lee Simpson by six goals for the netminding laurels.

Kamloops captured the championship with a six-point margin over second place Kelowna Buckaroos.
