Kamloops Rockets took a two-game lead in their best of seven series with New Westminster Royals for the B.C. junior hockey championship last weekend.

The Rockets, Okanagan Junior "A" Hockey League champions, nipped the Royals twice at New Westminster's Queens Park Arena.

Friday they won 3-1 and Saturday night they posted a 4-2 decision after taking a commanding 3-0 lead in the first period.

The third and fourth games are scheduled for Kamloops Memorial Arena this Friday and Saturday. The Rockets are seeking their second B.C. junior title in three years.
