

Rockets Roar To Second BC Puck Title

Kamloops Rockets won their second B.C. junior hockey championship Saturday night, drubbing New Westminster Royals 8-3 to take the best of seven play-off final in four straight games.

The Rockets, who earlier captured their third successive Okanagan Junior "A" Hockey League title, now advance against powerful Edmonton Oil Kings in a best of five Alberta-B.C. series.

The first two games of the playoff will be on Kamloops ice, Tuesday, March 24 and Wednesday, March 25, the remainder in Edmonton.

The Rockets showed marked superiority throughout their series with the Royals, winning the first two in New Westminster 3-1 and 4-2 last week and walking away with the championship on home ice with 10-3 and 8-3 decisions Friday and Saturday.
