minister zone after the third period ended resulted in more penalties on a questionable hitmen action against Backs' Gary Rizzuto. He came together with Backs' seven-foot Sam Sharkey and, for the knocking and setting Rizzuto incurred two penalties for the first time in two majors, for stalling and spearing.

Bill Valley said penalties killed off Kelowna Backs twice in two games at West Westminster. He had seven penalties in the first game, and lost Sunday and five Saturdays. His team was knocked out.

The Kelowna coach was highly critical of the referees. He said the referees system it employs is not fair. He said that in the first three, two lineament system is more efficient.

He said Kelowna manager, said there is some speculation there may be a two to two lineament in the future game.

Men's Basketball Title

Richmond University of North Carolina won the title.

In the afternoon round Richmond whipped North State 99-73 and the Blue Devils of North Carolina State defeated Kennesaw 64-39.

The victory for Richmond was equal to last year's triumph over the Blue Devils in the championship play which was held to start in Winston-Salem April 4.
