

OJHL Well Represented In Hockey Spectacular

Seventeen players will carry the colors of the Okanagan Junior "A" Hockey League in the All-Star Hockey Spectacular at Kelowna this Saturday.

Included in the OJHL all-star contingent will be two members of the Vernon Blades, defenceman Jim Stephen and centre Bobby Stein.

Those representing Kelowna Buckaroos will be goalie Mike Gaal, defencemen Don Hebert, Dave Cousins and Norbert Wildemann and forwards John

BOBBY STEIN

... Blades' rep.

Strong, Terry Kasubuchi, Marcello Verna, Garth Rizzuto and Lyn Swanson.

From Penticton-Summerland Broncos will come Larry Palanio, Dwayne Biagioni and Ray Picco while Kamloops Rockets will supply OJHL scoring champ Eric Shishido, Dale Sandyke and Ken Rinaldi.

Headlining the big spectacular will be Chicago Black Hawks' Golden Jet Bobby Hull and Detroit Red Wings' hard-hitting veteran defenceman Bill Gadsby.

Portland Buckaroo greats Art Jones, Gerry Goyer and Arnie Schmautz will be in action along with Vancouver Canucks' Billy McNeill, the league's most valuable player, centreman Larry Lund from San Francisco Seals and Larry Hale from Seattle Totems, the latter duo being Penticton natives.

Memphis Wings, rear-guard Bert Marshall and winger Murray Owen from Nelson Maple Leafs will also be on hand. Both these two players are Kamloops minor hockey products.

Canada's junior sensation Fran Huck from Regina Pats and Wayne North, a high scoring winger from Toledo Blades complete the lineup.

Tickets may be purchased locally at Ernie's Esso Service. All seats are on a reserved basis. The game will get underway at 8 p.m.

