

Bucs host Kings in OJHL opener tomorrow night

The Kelowna Buckaroos will host the Kamloops Kraft Kings tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. in the first game of the Okanagan Junior Hockey League 1966-67 schedule.

Buckaroos, fresh from a two-game series with the Moose Jaw Canucks, will be ready and more than willing to tangle with the Kings, who have been kept under wraps for most of the fall training schedule.

The game will be every bit of a grudge match as far as the Kelowna team is concerned. Buckaroos captured the OJHL league championship last year but were foiled in an attempt to become Okanagan representatives by the third place finishing Kings who beat them out in five games of the best of seven final.

Buckaroos completed their exhibition season with a 4-4 tie Monday night with the Canucks. They had lost the first game 7-1 to Moose Jaw.

Vernon Blades and Penticton Broncs are scheduled to play in Vernon October 15 for the first game for either of the two teams. Blades and Broncs both are looked on as the league's dark horses this season.
