

Epilog to a long season

Jerry Holland of the Kamloops Rockets (centre foreground) is about to sound the death knell for the Essos in B.C. junior A hockey this season. The above action is caught by the camera as Holland is about to go in and score the first of two goals that tied then won the fifth game of the Vernon-Kamloops series and gave the Rockets the quarter-final series and the right to advance into the provincial championship round. Final score in the game played at civic arena Tuesday night was 5-4 for Rockets and gave them a four games to one decision in the best of seven playoffs.
