

BCJHL action

With nearly a weeks rest behind them, B.C. Junior A hockey action resumes on several fronts with seven of eight teams playing at least one game this weekend.

Friday, Penticton the current league leaders, head for a two game series at the coast taking on Vancouver Villas the same night and then moving into Nanaimo for a Saturday night fixture.

Meanwhile, Chilliwack Bruins of the coast division make a three game sweep into the interior playing Friday at Kelowna, Saturday in Kamloops to meet the Rockets and Sunday night they will be here in Vernon for a 7:30 game.

As mentioned, Penticton lead the league with a 10 game undefeated streak for 20 points followed by Vernon and Kamloops with 12 points each.

Third place standings show three teams sharing the spot with Kelowna Buckaroos, Vancouver Villas and Nanaimo Clippers each with 10 points.

In seventh place at the moment it is Chilliwack Bruins with eight points and holding down last place is Bellingham Blazers with only two points in seven games played.

The Peruvian government has abolished monetary awards that accompanied civil merit prizes.

Use the wide end of a shoe horn to cut corn off the cob for freezing.