Bigger and better hockey players will be featured at the Vernon Vikings training camp opening September 14th.

The B.C. Junior Hockey League club will feature home-grown talent says manager-coach Vern Dye. Players he is counting on include Grant Sidnik and Marty Stein, among others.

Meanwhile, Dye says two members of last year's club will attend the training camp of the tier one Kamloops squad. Defenceman Tim Sanche and forward Don Murdoch have accepted tryout contracts.

Approximately 52 players will attend the Viking's camp which will go on a two-a-day operation.
