Vikings ride the high tide

Vernon Vikings had two wins while Langley Lords and Bellingham Blazers each suffered two losses in weekend British Columbia Junior Hockey League action.

In Sunday's games, Vernon dumped the Lords 6-3 at Vernon and Penticton Broncos edged the Blazers 5-4 in Penticton. The Vikings beat Bellingham 7-5 Saturday while Kelowna Buckaroos defeated Langley 5-3 and White Rock coasted to a 6-1 victory over Nanaimo Clippers.

Ken Price led the Vernon team Sunday with two goals. The singles were scored by Dave Caldwell, Dave Dubbin, Greg Howe and Bob Burgoyne. Langley goals were fired in by John Cregort, Gord Stephens and Kelly Ferner.

The score was 2-2 at the end of the first period but Vernon held a 4-2 advantage after 40 minutes.

In Penticton Sunday, the score was 2-2 at the end of the first period but Penticton took a 5-3 lead in the second and held on for the win as Bellingham scored the only goal in the final period.

Penticton's goals came from Wade Jowett, Mike Holmes, Mark Patterson, Pat Severyn and Bryan James. The Bellingham goals were scored by Brad Maxwell, Harold Phillipoff, Stanley Smyl and John Stone.

In Vernon's game against the Blazers Saturday, Greg Sidnick led the Vikings with two goals. Lyle Brewer, Dallas Chappell, Burgoyne, Caldwell and John Kotilo added singles.

Bellingham goals were scored by Paul Carson, Mark Arnett, Smyl, Maxwell and Paul Enquist.

BREAKS TIE

In the game at Kelowna Saturday, the teams were tied 3-3 in the second period. Dave Costanzo scored at 6:30 to put Kelowna ahead and Curt Fraser added an insurance goal half-way through the second period.

Costanzo and Steve Paolone each scored two goals for the Buckaroos. Langley had goals from Sandy Bain, Brian Henderson and Brian Walter.

Goalie Ernie Glanville was credited with the White Rock victory over Nanaimo Saturday. With Glanville blocking all but one of the 38 shots fired at him during the night, Centennials romped to a 3-0 first period lead. The teams traded goals in the second and White Rock added two more in the third.

Shoe on other foot for Flin Flon

It's early, of course, but the shoe may be on the other foot for Flin Flon Bombers this season in the Western Canada Hockey League.

For years, the Bombers have been fattening their point-totals in weekend doubleheaders, but during the first weekend of the 1973-74 season they managed only one point in two games with Winnipeg Clubs.

John Dunsmore of the Clubs scored a power-play goal with five seconds remaining Monday to force a 4-4 tie, following a 10-3 triumph by Winnipeg Sunday.

Flin Flon remained one point ahead of Brandon Wheat Kings, Swift Current Broncos, Saskatoon Blades and Winnipeg in the Eastern Division standings.

The Bruins pounded Medicine

Edmonton, Kamloops and Victoria are winless in the Western Division.

The Oil Kings were beaten 5-4 Sunday by Swift Current. Saskatoon downed Regina Pats, only winless club in the Eastern Division, 4-2 in the only other Sunday game.

Before Dunsmore scored Winnipeg's tying goal, Laurie Depres scored twice and Pat Meagher once for the Clubs. Harvey Maluta scored twice and Ray Maluta and Rob Watt once each for Flin Flon.

In Sunday's game, Derek Tallon paced Winnipeg with three goals. Gord Blumenschein and Greg Warren added two each. Meagher, Gerry Wagner and Doug Wilson shared the
