Langley Lords played before a hometown crowd Wednesday night for only the second time this season, and they rewarded the faithful 650 fans with their second straight win in their new arena, 8-3 over Chilliwack.

In a second B.C. Junior Hockey League game Wednesday, Vernon Vikings took a 6-0 lead at home against Penticton Broncos and hung on for an 8-6 victory.

Chilliwack was never in it at Langley as the Lords held period leads of 3-0 and 5-1.

Brian Henderson scored twice for the winners, with single goals coming from Allen Young,

John Gregory, Dwight Bailey, Sandy Bain, Rod Savaduk and Daryl Dodman.

Vern Quaroni had two of Chilliwack's three goals, the other coming from Dave Sharples.

Langley had a wide edge in shots, 42-29.

In Vernon, with the Vikings outshooting the visitors 40-34, Tad Campbell was top scorer for the winners with three goals. Bob Burgoyne had two, and Greg Howe, Jeff Boychuk and Don Murdoch had one apiece.

Penticton scorers were Kirk Aulin, Reg Kerr, Pat Severyn, Doug Lawton, Wade Jowett and Rod Dyck.
