Langley Lords, who have won 10 consecutive games at home, continued their winning streak in Merritt Saturday, defeating the Merritt Centennials 7-5 in a British Columbia Junior Hockey League game in Merritt.

Merritt took a 3-0 lead in the first period, Langley pulled up to a 4-4 tie starting the third and then Sandy Baine scored twice for the Lords and Dwight Bailey got the final point. Fred Berry, who had one of the firstperiod Centennial goals, got another in the third but that was the best Merritt could do.

Other Langley scorers were Dave Hatheway, Ryan Walter and Lane Lavik. Danny Rota, Daryl Zelinski and Paul Mulvey also scored for Merritt.

On Sunday, Merritt lost another game, that one to Nanaimo Clippers who overpowered them 6-5 in Nanaimo. Jeff Frektich and Kirk Fiffy led Nanaimo with two goals each, while Dale Iwasiuk and Bruce Van Camp scored singles. Berry, Zelinski, Lee Newport, Rota and Mulvey added singles for Merritt.

Another twotime weekend loser was the Bellingham Blazers.

Vernon defeated Bellingham 6-3 Saturday night in Vernon. Don Murdoch, Terry Anaka, Dave Caldow, Grant Sidnick, Jeff Boychuk and Bob Burgoyne were scorers for Vernon while Neil Robinson, Stan Smyl and Harold Phillipoff made the goals for Bellingham.

Penticton Broncos jumped into an early lead and went on to a 5-2 win over Bellingham Sunday in Penticton. Esko Siipola, Doug Lawton, Wade Jowell, Mike Holmes and Reg Kerr counted for Penticton while Bellingham scorers were Smyl and Brad Maywell.

Chilliwack Bruins piled up two wins during the weekend, the first a 5-4 victory over Penticton Saturday in Penticton. Terry Hochstader accounted for two of the Bruins' goals, Vern Quaroni, Dave Sharples and Tom Zelke added the others. Mark Patterson, Mike Holmes, Siipola and Jowell scored for the Broncos.

The second Bruins win came Sunday night with a 3-2 win over the Kelowna Buckaroos in Kelowna. Ken Weninger, Jim Slater and Ken Widemyer tallied for the Bruins who led all the way. Murray Hanson and Brad Owens counted for Kelowna.

Regina-Calgary division leaders

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
The division leaders, Regina Pats and Calgary Centennials, both posted convincing victories in Western Canada Hockey League action Sunday night, while those at the bottom of the divisions sank even lower.

Regina, Eastern leader battered Edmonton oil Kings 6-4 at Edmonton after tying Medicine Hat Tigers 2-2 in Medicine Hat Saturday night. Calgary, tops in the West Division, bounced Brandon 5-2 at Calgary.

Winnipeg Clubs, in the basement in the East, took a 5-2 beating from New Westminster Royals. Kamloops Chiefs, last in the West, took an 8-3 whipping from Swift Current Saturday by Edmonton while Winnipeg nipped Victoria Cougars 3-2.

In the other Sunday game, Saskatoon Blades halted Flin Flon Bombers 6-2.

GET TWO-GOAL WEEKENDS

Rick Uhrich, Mike Wanchuk, Dennis Sobchuk, Glen Burdon, Greg Joly and Dave Faulkner scored for Regina Sunday night against the Oil Kings. Sobchuk and Clark Gillies scored Saturday at Medicine Hat.

Edmonton marksmen Sunday were Doug Lecuyer, Wayne Perkins, Terry McDonald and Rocky Maze. In the Saturday rout over Kamloops, Maze, Bucyk and Clark Jantzie scored twice while Terry McDonald
