SAN DIEGO (AP) — Chicago hamburger king Ray A. Kroc, agreeing to buy the San Diego Padres baseball team for a reported $12 million, said Friday he considers National League approval assured.

After being congratulated by the National League's president by telephone, Kroc said he asked Charles (Chub) Feeney if the call was premature, but "he said, 'No, I don't think so.'"

"So I would assume he has covered it with the National League owners."

ues to hold first place in the Interior Division.

Penticton netminder Andy Mydlak stopped 33 shots while Kelowna goalie Bill Stankover kicked away 35 shots.

In Langley, Don Moores led the Lords, who hold on to the Coast Division's top notch, with three goals. Dave Hathaway scored twice and Chris Dyer and Lane Lavik scored singles. Bruce Van Camp, Kirk Fyffe and Fenton Gale scored for the losers.

At the end of the first period Langley led 2-0 and after 40 minutes 4-1.

Langley netminder Mark Earp stopped 35 shots while Nanaimo goalie Dan Rogers kicked away 46 shots.

Langley now is 19 points up on idle Bellingham Blazers who have 40 points in the Coast Division. Nanaimo remains in the division's basement. In the Interior Division, idle Vernon Vikings are within seven points of Kelowna with 67 points. Penticton's win gave it 51 points, well ahead of fourth place Merritt Centennials.

In tonight's play, Kelowna visits Penticton, Merritt hosts Bellingham and Nanaimo travels to Chilliwack to meet the Bruins.
