

Cents tie Lords

LANGLEY, B.C. (CP) — Ernie Glanville kicked out 41 shots to boost Merritt Centennials to a 5-5 tie with Langley Lords in the only British Columbia Junior Hockey League game Thursday night.

Glanville was busy throughout the evening while at the other end, Mark Earp and Keith Woodburn, who shared goaltending duties for Langley, rested for long periods as they combined for only 17 saves.

The Lords remained comfortably atop the league's coast division with a 22-point bulge over second-place Bellingham.

Merritt is mired in last place in the interior, an awesome 31 points behind third-place Vernon.
