

Broncos bottle Bucks to even BCJHL series

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Bellingham Blazers and Penticton Broncos proved there's no place like home in British Columbia Junior Hockey League playoffs action Wednesday night.

The Blazers got a new life in their semi-final series with Langley Lords, whipping the Lords 4-1 in the Washington city to stave off elimination

PIN POINTS

Outlaw Mixed 7-9

Wednesday, March 20

Women's high single, Dorothy Smith 301; high triple, Gloria Hanna 711; high average, Marilyn Weir 215.

from the series. They now trail 3-1.

The Broncos deadlocked their semi-final at 2-2 by scoring four times in the final period to dump Kelowna Buckaroos 6-2.

Playing in Penticton, the Broncos broke open a tight game with the four goals after the clubs had battled through the first two periods with Penticton emerging with a 2-1 edge.

Mark Patterson had two goals for the Broncos, with singles added by Gord MacKay, Marc Severyn, Mike Holmes and Rod Zadaduk. Curt Fraser and Duane Monteith scored for the Buckaroos.

The Blazers did their work early, taking a 2-0 lead in the first period, scoring an unanswered goal in the second and then making it 4-0 before Dave Hathaway of the Lords spoiled Ian McWilliams' shutout bid with a goal with less than three minutes remaining.

Kevin Schamehorn, Dean Arnett, Paul Enquist and Wayne Jeske scored for the Blazers.

Both series resume Friday.