

Bucks win interior playoffs

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP) — Kelowna Buckaroos handed Penticton Broncos a 10-3 trouncing Saturday to advance into the finals of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League.

The defeat was the second one-sided one to the Broncos in as many nights. Kelowna took the semi-final 4-2.

The game was never in doubt after the opening frame as Kelowna parlayed a 1-0 lead into a 6-2 edge at the end of the second period.

Mark Lofthouse lead the Kelowna attack with three goals, while Brad Owens and Murray Hansen each scored two. John Stone, Duane Monte and Archie McKinnon had single goals.

For Penticton, Gord MacKay, Reg Kerr and Chad Campbell scored one apiece.

Kelowna took the interior division title and will now face Langley Lords, the coast division winners, in a best-of-seven series for the title.
