

Junior teams fined $300

KELOWNA (CP) — The Kelowna Buckaroos and the Penticton Broncos were fined $300 each Tuesday by B.C. Junior Hockey League president Arnold Lowden for failing to control players following a playoff game in Kelowna Friday night.

A brawl broke out after the final buzzer and misconduct penalties were handed to Kelowna's Tom Onno and Penticton's Rod Zavaduk for deliberately attempting to injure.

---