

Kelowna leads series

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Kelowna Buckaroos opened up a 2-0 lead in their best-of-seven British Columbia Junior Hockey League final series Friday night with a 7-3 lacing of Langley Lords.

Kelowna led 2-1 at the end of the first period, but Langley tied the score 2-2 by the end of the second. Kelowna stormed back in the third period, however, scoring five unanswered goals in seven minutes, all before the period was half over.

Archie McKinnon and Mark Lofthouse each scored twice for Kelowna. Dale Turner, Randy Naito and Ken Schisler added singles.

Chris Dyer, Barry Beck and Dave Hathaway scored for Langley.

Kelowna outshot Langley 42-38.
