Bucks near series win

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Kelowna Buckaroos took a 3-1 lead in the Western Canada best-of-seven Centennial Cup semi-final series Sunday with a 6-1 victory over Red Deer Rustlers before 2,331 fans.

Curt Fraser and Mark Lofthouse paced the Kelowna scoring attack with two goals each, while Dale Turner and Murry Hanson scored singles.

Earle Switzer got the only Red Deer goal, spoiling Bill Stankoven's shutout attempt at 15:07 of the third period.

The fifth game in the series is scheduled for Tuesday in Kelowna.
