Hardest workers - Betty Griffin and Louise Heard.

Vern Dye told the Daily News this morning he does not feel that statement is the final blow to the Spokane franchise.

Dye said, "There is a junior council meeting this weekend in Montreal and I think the final decision will be made there. If it wants to, I think the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association can have the final say in the dispute."

COUNCIL MEETING

Dr. Arnold Lowden, from Penticton, president of the BCJHL, will represent his league at the council meeting.

Peebles said, "We feel that such an expansion would be detrimental at this time to the senior team presently playing in Spokane."

He said the creation of a new team at this time could hurt the Spokane Jets of the Western International Hockey League financially.

Reportedly, if the Spokane junior franchise is approved, the Senior Jets will attempt to land a professional franchise. An unconfirmed report stated today the Jets' management is attempting to make their club a farm team for Phoenix, a new entry in the World Hockey Association.
