KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Morley Anderson of Nanaimo Clippers has taken over top spot in British Columbia Junior Hockey League scoring with five goals and four assists in the three regular-schedule games his club has played.

League statistics released Monday show Anderson's nine points matched by two players from Kelowna Buckaroos, the only unbeaten BCJHL team with two straight wins. Doug Berry has four goals and five assists and Mark Schnarr three goals and six assists.

Kelowna leads the Interior division while Chilliwack Bruins have three wins and one loss to hold first place in the Coast division.
