Chilliwack Bruins strengthened their hold on first place in the coast division of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League with an 8-4 win over Nanaimo Clippers while second-place Bellingham Blazers held their own with an 8-3 win over Merritt Centennials Thursday night.

In a game at Chilliwack, Nanaimo had a 1-0 first-period lead, but the Bruins came back to lead 7-3 after two periods.

Steve McDonald led the Bruins with three goals and Butch Dupont added a pair. Warren Terry, Vern Quaroni and Tom O'Neill had a goal each.

Morley Anderson, Greg Norbratten, Kirk Fyfe and Clint Eccles scored for Nanaimo.
