

WAG line catches fire

The much-improved play of Vernon Vikings's W.A.G. line of Greg Walmsley, Ron Areshnekoff, and Gary Gilchrist, has suddenly made the unit the hottest scoring line in the B.C. Junior Hockey League.

Six games ago, the line had a total of 45 points. The W.A.G. line, which averages more than 180 pounds, now has a total of 85 points. During that six-game stretch, they have accounted for 17 goals and 23 assists.

Walmsley has now moved up into third place on the club in scoring with 33 points, three more than fourth place Areshnekoff. Gilchrist, who has scored a goal in six of the Vikings' last seven games, holds down seventh spot.
