

Vikings hoping for new player

Vernon Vikings hope to have a new defenceman in camp later this week.

The player is Bill Kelts, 18, from Consort, Alta. Kelts played for Vernon coach Joe Tennant two years ago in Kamloops and last year he toiled with The Pass Red Devils, of the Alberta Junior A Hockey League.

Kelts attended Calgary

Centennials camp this year but walked out.

Tennant said, "Kelts is not that big, 180 pounds, but he is particularly good at moving the puck out of his end."

After last week's 9-8 loss to Merritt, Tennant decided to tighten up his defence. He now has Don Patzer, a 180 pound blue liner from Coquitlam, in town for a trial.

BIG TRADE

Meanwhile, New Westminster Bruins, of the Western Canada Hockey League acquired Richard Shinske from Calgary Centennials Monday.

In return for Shinske, N.W. gave up centre Paul Enquist from their farm club, Bellingham Blazers, of the B.C. Junior Hockey League.

Bruins' coach Ernie McLean said either Bruce Rolin or Fred Berry will be sent to Bellingham to replace Enquist.
