

Vikings to dress newcomer

Vernon Vikings will have another new face in the line-up tonight when they host league-leading Kelowna Buckaroos.

Herb Smith, 17, a defenceman from Hith, Alta., was placed on a three-game trial with the club today by coach Joe Tennant.

Tennant was impressed with Smith in practice Tuesday and wants to get a look at him during a game situation.

Buckaroos will be going with basically the same roster that has won them 25 games in 30 outings this season. Enderby native, Bill Stankoven, is expected to start in goal for Kelowna.

Vernon will be minus captain Greg Walmsley, Darrell Booth, and Bill Ranson, all out with injuries.
