

GORD GENEREUX
... from Nanaimo

Coast all-stars selected

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — The British Columbia Junior Hockey League has announced the lineup of its Coastal division allstar team which will meet the Interior selects in the league all-star game in Kelowna Jan. 23.

Goaltenders selected are Carey Walker of the Bellingham Blazers and Dan Rogers of the Nanaimo Clippers.

Defencemen are Carl Cureatz and Butch Dupont of the Chilliwack Bruins; Brian McAlister and Kevin Krook of Bellingham, Dwayne Lowdermilk of Langley Lords and Gord Genereux of Nanaimo.

Centres are Sandy Bain and Ryan Walter of Langley, Gary Huth of Chilliwack and Clint Eccles of Nanaimo. Left-wingers are Terry Tarnow and Brian Henderson of Langley, Roy Wheaton of Bellingham and Tom Zelke of Chilliwack. Rightwingers are Vern Quaroni of Chilliwack, Ken Pendleton of Bellingham, Rod Guimont of Nanaimo and Lane Lavik of Langley.

The coach of the Coast division all-stars is Gil Lundihan of Langley.