

Vikings host Bucks tonight

Despite the fact Kelowna Buckaroos are 26 points ahead of Vernon Vikings in the Interior Division of the B.C. Junior Hockey League, Vernon Coach Joe Tennant is confident his club can win two games against the Bucks this weekend.

Vernon hosts Kelowna tonight and travels to the

Argos to talk to Hunsperger

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Argonauts admit they made a mistake in failing to put in a bid for running back Mack Herron when he was waived out of the Canadian Football League after the 1972 season. They don't want to be accused of making a similar mistake.

John Barrow, the Argos managing director, says that's why they claimed Garrett Hunsperger, British Columbia Lions defensive tackle, who was put on waivers without right of recall Thursday.

Hunsperger, 26, a six-foot-four 255-pound graduate of Central Missouri who joined the Lions in 1969, was offered on waivers after being ordered to pay $16,500 damages for beating three men last spring.

He and a former team-mate, Bud Magrum, were involved in two incidents last April and May and Magrum was ordered to pay $3,000 in the civil action.

Barrow says it was solely his decision to claim Hunsperger.

"I'm not a judge or jury and I feel the very least I can do is talk to Hunsperger and hear what he has to say for himself.

Regatta City Sunday night.

Tennant told the Daily News tonight's game will be a rough one, but not dirty.

The Vernon coach said, "We play our best hockey when we are hitting, and that is exactly what we are going to do from here on."

Jim Scammell will be in the nets tonight for Vikings. Scammell was hot in the last two games of the coast swing, which ended Wednesday, and he will continue to play until he gets cold.

In BCHJL action Friday, Kelowna snapped its five-game losing streak with a 12-4 win over Merritt Centennials.

There was little doubt in that game as the Bucks led 8-0 after the first period.

On the coast, Langley Lords stopped Penticton Broncos winning streak at seven games with a 4-3 victory. In Bellingham, the Blazers edged Chilliwack Bruins 5-4.

Your
TORO
headquarters

See the
'75 Toros
here

NOBLE
Sport Leisure
Kal Lake Road
542-8188