

Winger rejoins Vikings

Vernon Vikings' Coach Joe Tennant has a growing problem; his roster.

Tennant had his roster down to 21 last Saturday when wingers Drew Tumbach and Brent Bucyk, along with defenceman Bob Putnam, returned to their homes.

However, the Vikings' coach received a phone call Monday saying Tumbach was on his way back to Vernon, from his Medicine Hat home, and plans on making the club.

Vikings have two goalies, seven defencemen, and 13 forwards still on the roster.

Winger Robbie Jacobsen and centre Clyde Goodswimmer are both expected to be ready for Vikings' next game, Wednesday, when they host Penticton Vees.

Both players have been out of action for the last three games with injuries.

Two ex-Vikings, Dwight Bailey and Darrell Booth, are members of the Vees this year. In four games, Bailey has four goals.
