

Bucks edge Vees in junior hockey

Kelowna Buckaroos edged Penticton Vees 3-2 before 500 fans Tuesday in Penticton in the only scheduled B.C. Junior Hockey League game.

Vees get little time to lick their wounds before they take on Vernon Vikings tonight at 8 p.m., at the Vernon Civic Arena.

Rick Benningshof, John Uvegas, and Mark Schnarr scored for Kelowna while Darryl Becker and Darrell Booth notched one each for the Vees.

There were 48 penalty minutes handed out in the game and the Vees, who outshot Kelowna 37-35, took 33 minutes.

Two Penticton players local fans will recognize tonight are Dwight Bailey and Booth.

Bailey was one of the top scorers on the Vikings last season but Booth never quite lived up to his potential. Neither player fit into Vernon Coach Joe Tennant's plans this year, so Vees were given permission to sign them.

Tennant, still over the roster limit, must sit out at least three players tonight. Robbie Jacobsen and Clyde 'The Chief' Goodswimmer will be back in the line-up after missing three games with injuries.
