

Winning streak on line tonight

Vernon Vikings are hoping to establish their longest winning streak since the 1973-74 season tonight when they travel to Penticton to meet the Veas.

Vikings' longest winning streak last season was five games, which they have currently tied.

If they do win tonight, it will probably be without veteran defenceman Terry Anaka. Anaka, selected top defenceman on the team last season, injured his ankle last Saturday against Chilliwack and is listed as a doubtful starter.

Meanwhile, Penticton fans will get their first look at the Veas' new coach Joe Beggs.

Beggs replaced Nick Iannone who was fired on Wednesday night.

Vikings get less than 24 hours rest before they host Merritt Centennials on Saturday night.

Vernon Coach Joe Tennant told the Daily News he feels both the weekend games are crucial.

TERRY ANAKA
... may not play

Tennant said, "Kelowna has lost only once in eight games and we need two wins this weekend to keep pace with the Bucks."

Kelowna has 14 points followed by Vernon and Merritt with 12. Penticton has seven points.