

Vikings to play Langley

Vernon Vikings are in Langley tonight to play the Lords and try to extend their unbeaten streak to eight games.

The Vikings will have a 10-game winning streak — just two short of the B.C. Junior Hockey League record for victories — if they can win all three games of their coast road trip this weekend.

The Vernon squad meets Nanaimo Clippers Saturday and is in Maple Ridge for a game against the Blazers Sunday.

Next home game is Wednesday, when the Merritt Centennials will take on the Vikings at the Civic Arena.

Vernon currently leads the Interior division of the BC-JHL, with a two point lead over the Kelowna Buckaroos.
