Langley records overtime victory

Rob Jones' second goal of the game and the solid net-minding of Dale Neilson helped Langley Lords to a 5-4 sudden-death overtime victory over Kelowna Buckaroos in B.C. Junior Hockey League action Friday in Langley.

In other games Friday, Penticton Vees and Nanaimo Clippers played to a 5-5 overtime tie, while Maple Ridge Blazers blanked Chilliwack Bruins 4-0.

Jones stole an errant Buckaroos' pass in his own zone and skated the length of the ice to tuck a low backhand shot past Kelowna goalie John McKerrow.

Terry Lescisin, Sandy Bain, and Errol Rausse scored Langley's other goals. Perry Schnarr scored twice for the Bucks with singles from John Olver and Brad Owens.

Vernon Vikings have a chance to strengthen their hold on first-place in the Interior Division tonight when they host Nanaimo.

Vikings lead second-place Penticton by five points, but have five games-in-hand.

Meanwhile, on the coast, Kelowna Buckaroos will be trying to get back on the winning track tonight when they play in Chilliwack.

Sunday, Nanaimo is in Merritt and Kelowna visits Maple Ridge.
