An overtime goal by Terry Graff led Nanaimo Clippers to a 6-5 win over Maple Ridge Blazers and put them within two points of league-leading Vernon Vikings in British Columbia Junior Hockey League action Friday night.

Graff scored three goals for the visiting Clippers while George Fritz scored twice and Gary Lupul had the other goal.

Len Dailey scored three times for the Blazers—the last goal coming at 19:43 of the third period to force the game into overtime—while Cam Stretichuk and Sheldon Geary added the other goals.

In other games, Penticton Vees trounced Chilliwack Bruins 12-2 while Langley Lords beat the Kelowna Buckaroos 3-1. Both were home-ice wins.
