Bucks romp over Centennials 9-4

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Three-goal performances helped Abbotsford Flyers and Kelowna Buckaroos record British Columbia Junior Hockey League victories Tuesday night.

In Langley, 550 fans watched Rick Greenwood score three including the winner to pace the Flyers to a 7-6 victory over Langley Lords while in Kelowna, Mike Mills fired three goals to lead the Buckaroos to a 9-4 romp over Merritt Centennials before 716 fans.

In Langley, the teams were tied 2-2 at the end of the first period and Langley led 4-3 at the end of the second.

Brian Inkster added two goals for the winners while Pat McGill and Bill Hobbins had singles.

Terry Lescisin and Lane Lavik each scored twice for Langley while Terry Jackson and Barry Crawford got the other markers.

FLYERS OUTSHOT

Langley drew seven of 11 minor penalties, three of five fighting majors and a game misconduct while outshooting Abbotsford 43-34.

In Kelowna, Scott MacLeod scored two more for the buckaroos who got their others from Brad Palmer, Robbie Wright, John Olver, and Rod Danchuk.

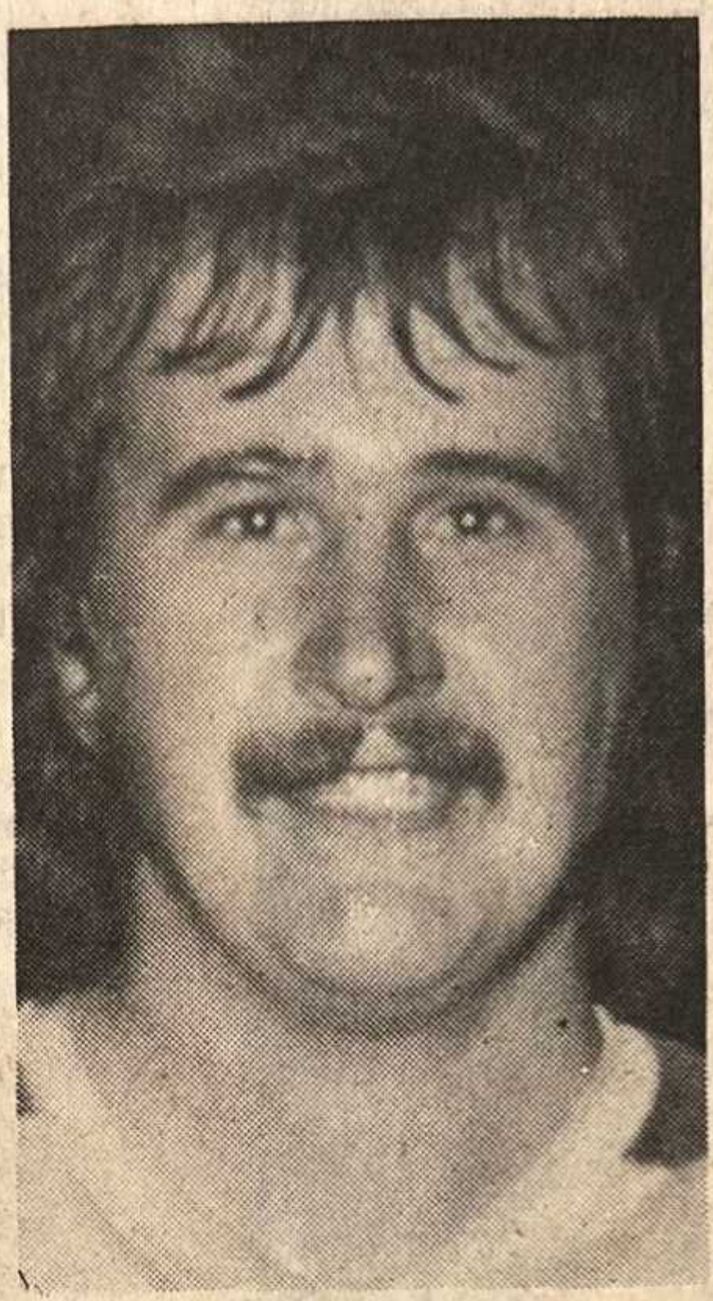

Blake Stephen, Laurie Nordstrom, Bob Deschamps and Dan Bustin scored for Merritt which trailed 3-0 after the first period and 7-1 going into the third.

Kelowna outshot Merritt 40-22, and took five of nine minor penalties.

In tonight's games, Kamloops Braves visit Vernon Vikings while Nanaimo Clippers entertain Maple Ridge Bruins.

KEVIN WHITE

GARY CRISS

. . . suspended

VERNON PLAYERS DRAW SUSPENSIONS

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP) — Two players from Vernon Vikings and one from Bellingham Blazers have been suspended by Ernie McLean, chairman of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League.

Kevin White of Vernon was handed a five-game suspension for making an obscene gesture to the fans in a game at Bellingham, Wash., Sunday. Gary Criss of Vernon was suspended two games for not going to the players' bench when ordered during a fight.

Bruce Jacobsen of Bellingham was suspended for two games for coming off the bench to join a fight in the same game.