Half-court press forces turnovers

Vernon Panthers strengthened their hold on first place in the Okanagan Basketball League's north zone Wednesday by dumping Kamloops Red Devils 68-60 in Kamloops.

To outcome was decided in the final six minutes when Panthers switched to a half-court press. The move confounded Kamloops and forced several turnovers.

Vernon led 37-34 at half-time, but Devils fought back and tied the game 48-48 after three quarters.

Panthers Coach Rick Inrig credited the half-court press and guard Glen Sirges with pulling the game out of the mire.

Centre Tom Lavison was Panthers top sniper with 23 points while Rick Christiansen and Brent Zimmer sunk 10 apiece. Davidson had 14 rebounds while Zimmer grabbed 12.

Guard Steve King had one of infrequent off-nights King, who averages 18.5 points per game, scored just eight.

Guard Phil Henderson led the Devils' attack with 18 points. "Inrig said, 'Actually we only got constant games out of two players - Davidson and Zimmer. A few guys, like Sirges and Mike Korman had their good spots, but overall, we weren't too sharp.'"

Royals Coach Deloy Houtley called the game his club's best of the season. He said, "There is no doubt about it, the girls were just super. They knew they had to work hard without Terril (Roman) and they did it."

Roman, the team's first string centre, sat out the game with an ankle injury. Last time Royals tangled with the Angels, Vernon won only two points and Roman scored 28 of them.

Leanne Williams was top scorer this time with 22 points while Jill Hewison dropped in 12. Guard Connie Blaser, known for her defensive play,
