Rocks surprised in series opener

Bob Webber scored, on a powerplay, with 14 seconds remaining in the third period to give Kelowna Bruins a 10-9 victory over Armstrong Shamrocks in the first game of the Interior Lacrosse Association semi-finals on Monday night in the Regatta City.

Second game in the best-of-three series is slated for Friday night in Armstrong.

Shamrocks, after beating Bruins in their final three meetings, were heavily favored to sweep the series. However, on Monday, Armstrong Coach Ernie Henderson found his bench depleted.

Jack Prokopets was sitting out a one-game suspension while Bird Henderson and Ken McGregor came down with the flu.

THREE GOALS

Greg Claggett scored three goals for the winners while Frank Broeders and Randy Smith added two apiece. Singles went to Bert Parrent, Dave Newman, and Webber. For Parrent, the coach, it was his first appearance on the floor this season.

Jim Maundrell replied with three goals for the Rocks while Calvin White added a pair. Singles went to Duncan McDonald, Bob Shannon, Adrian Lemaire, and Kelly O'Brien.

Kelowna goalie Mike Neid was a standout with 52 saves and three assists. Armstrong netminder Dan Buchanan blocked 48 shots.

Each team picked up 30 minutes in penalties.

Henderson told the Daily News he is still confident his club can win the series.

FULL TEAM

Henderson said, "I've got to admit, Bruins played better than I thought they would. But, we'll have our full team on Friday."

The Shamrocks' coach said he plans to have ex-pro Chuck Medhurst in the line-up for the second game.

Hender'n said, "I don't plan on taking any chances, so, Chuck will be dressed. One thing is for sure — there will be one heckuva crowd."

Winner advances to the best-o.-five final series against Vernon Lodge Tigers.

While most people are out soaking up the sun, the Vernon Oldtimers Hockey Team has been preparing for an upcoming tourney in Santa Rosa, California. The Vernon squad, which has been practicing in Enderby, will be playing in the eighth annual Senior Olympics Hockey Tournament from Friday to next Monday. The event is hosted by Peanuts cartoonist Charles Schulz and the Redwood Empire Ice Arena, which Schulz built for Santa Rosa. Testing the aching legs and weary feet are from left, Tom Stecyk, Odie Lowe, and Don Jakes. Teams from throughout the U.S. and Canada will be competing.

Als and Lions hoping for third straight wins

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Fresh from a successful road show, Montreal Alouettes bring their Canadian Football League act home to Olympic Stadium tonight to take on Calgary Stampeders of the Western Conference in an interlocking game.

British Columbia Lions, like Montreal, undefeated in two games, will be playing at home to Saskatchewan Roughriders.

The Stampeders have given the Alouettes fits ever since the CFL herein its interlocking play. The Stampeders have won 10 games, lost five and tied one against the Alouettes.

But with victories over Ottawa Rough Riders and Toronto Argonauts under their belts, coach Marv Levy's club enters tonight's game with an unblemished record and a good deal of confidence.

"But don't forget, they have a lot of fine offensive players," Levy noted, reeling off the names of Willie Burden, Lou Harris, Rudy Linterman and Tom Forzani.

"You can't forget John Hufnagel either. He's an excellent quarterback and an accurate passer.

"Just imagine them with a backfield with Willie Burden and Lou Harris in it. Believe me, these guys are capable of scoring a touchdown on every play."

DEFENCE HURTING

The Alouettes defence might be hurting tonight as they go against Calgary's high-powered attack.

Lineman Gordie Judges a doubtful starter following a knee injury picked up in last Wednesday's 16-10 victory over Toronto while defensive end Junior Ah You, injured in preseason play, might make his first start of the regular season.

Calgary, which defeated Hamilton 18-11 last Tuesday in the West, are 1-1 and alone in third place in the WFC, two points behind unbeaten Winnipeg Blue Bombers and British Columbia Lions.

In spite of the 1-1 record, Calgary has been unfortunate in the injury department in 1977.

"Hufnagel has had a hard time," said Calgary coach Jack Gotta. "Of the top five receivers, Burten was the only one to play the first two games this year. Willie Armstead broke his leg two days before the season started and Tom Forzani's wrist kept him out of one game. Then Rudy Linterman missed a game as did Lou Harris."

But Gotta remains optimistic despite the setbacks.

"In spite of the fact the Als are supposed to have the best defence in the league, I'd be very disappointed if our offence doesn't click tomorrow night."

TOPS IN WEST

The Lions are tops in the West with a 84-14 victory over Saskatchewan last week, but the Roughriders haven't given up yet.

"There is now way we're playing as well as we can," said Bill Baker, traded to Saskatchewan by B.C. this season.

"We have to play tougher and harder. It's a challenge to me. When you get down, that's when a real pro ballplayer gets tougher and tougher."

Saskatchewan coach Jim Eddy said he is trying to patch up the defensive secondary, which has had no interceptions in the teams first two games.

"I was trying to get things solidified there," Eddy said. It's expected that veteran Ted Provost, who has yet to see action this season because of pulled thigh muscles, will be in tonight's game.

If Provost can't make it, Eddy will use rookie Emil Nielsen at safety to free Paul Williams for duty at left cornerback.

British Columbia's first victory of the season was a 14-9 decision over Calgary.

The Montreal-Calgary game will be televised on the full CBC network with a blackout in Montreal.

KENDALL'S KORNER

Tonight a biggie

More than 25,000 fans are expected to pour through the gates of Empire Stadium tonight to watch the B.C. Lions try for their third straight win of the season, and second straight victory over Saskatchewan Roughriders — yes that is right, they beat the Jolly Green Giants!

Twelve years ago, 2,000 at a Canadian Football League game in Vancouver would have been considered a disastrous crowd. But, a lot of things have happened between now and then. The teams has fallen on bad times and the once loyal Orange and Black supporters left a sinking ship.

For the first game of the season, less than 17,000 showed up to watch B.C. edge Calgary in a rather lacklustre contest. But, the appetite of many football fans was wet last week when they watched the Leos humble the mighty Roughies — right in Taylor Field.

Tonight could be the turning point for B.C. If the Lions win, they can look forward to large, enthusiastic crowds for the rest of the season. Quarterback Jerry Tagge will be nominated for mayor of Vancouver and Coach Vic Rapp will be called a genius.

If they lose a squeaker, the cry from the stands will be, "Not another one of those years."

But, if Ron Lancaster and his friends blow Leos out of Empire Stadium — the crowd will disappear, Tagge will be on the bench, and the cry will be, "Bye-bye Rapp."

Vancouver football fans are a unique breed. In the few years Lions were a contender, there were no better supporters in pro sport — anywhere. But, when it comes to losing, B.C. folks have had years of practice to think up other ways to spend their time and money.

So, sports fans, tonight is a biggie!

LOCAL GOSSIP

Vernon Vikings majority owner and general manager Vern Dye is willing to try almost anything to put hockey fans in the Civic Arena this winter.

Rumor is season tickets will go on sale, in August, at a rock-bottom price.

Last weekend's Senior Babe Ruth District Playdowns at Polson Park ran smooth as silk.

Vernon Coach Leo Gauthier claims the tourney wasn't a success by accident. He credits a lot of people, with a lot of hard work, in preparation for the tourney. Those include Bob Barker, Art Feaster, Don Knox, Chuck and Fay Haicro, Percy Main, John Mahler, Albert Gauthier, and the groundskeepers.

Garry Turik tells us Kamloops will be back in the Interior Lacrosse Association next year.

Turik, who went to Kelowna Bruins when Kamloops folded this season, said he has spoke to some of the players in Kamloops and they are eager to go in 1978. That club has been plagued by a lack of organization over the last five years.

Local soccer fans should be in for a real treat on Sunday when a schoolboy team from England tangles with a Vernon Selects team, at MacDonald Park.

The English lads eat, sleep, and drink soccer so, they should put on quite an exhibition.

Vernon Minor Lacrosse claims two league titles

Minor Lacrosse Association Head Coach Danny Holte told the Daily News he is pleased with the performance of Vernon's 10 teams during their first year of operation.

Vernon had two league champions and one team placed second during the regular season. In total, local clubs won 35, lost 64, and tied four games.

Holte said, "All our teams were competitive in tyke, novice and pee wee. In bantam and midget, Kelowna and Armstrong are about two years ahead of us. But, that doesn't discourage us at all. We didn't plan on running bantam and midget teams, however, because of large registrations in those age groups, we had to."

Terry Moss' Ill's Smitty's Pancake House tyke team was the most successful among Vernon squads. Smittys won nine of 10 games and captured the league title.

Bill Kirkland's Brownie's Chicken novice club had eight wins and two losses, good enough for first place.

The Husky Service pee wee team, coached by Brian Joe and Barry Sammartino, finished second in the six-team league. Husky won seven, lost three, and tied one.

The other tyke team, Kal Lake Carland, coached by Barry Millar, had one victory and nine setbacks. Jamie McKenzie's Bi-Rite Auto novice club was third in its league with five wins and five losses.

LACKED DEPTH

Vernon's other two pee wee teams didn't have the depth enjoyed by Huskys. Kinsmen, coached by Rich Zecchel and Donny Bruce, won three of 10 games while Bennetts, coached by Ian Kennedy, could manage only a tie in 10 outings.

In bantam, Holte's Village Green Inn club compiled a 2-7-1 record. The other bantam squad, coached by Greg Walmsley, had one tie and 10 losses.

Shopper's Drug Mart, coached by Graydon Brown, finished last in midget with 11 straight losses.

Holte said, "A couple of our teams got beat pretty badly during the year. But, the boys' interest remained up and the improvement in their play was tremendous.

"We're looking forward to next season. We had 160 boys this year and I wouldn't be surprised if we get 200 in 1978."
