

Silver Star skier tops among gals

Silver Star's Janice Harvey was the top female competitor in the sixth annual Molson Canadian Ski Instructors' Alliance Pro Team Race, on Saturday, at Silver Star. Fifty-six teams of ski instructors, from throughout Western Canada, completed for $4,000 in cash prizes.

Harvey had a two-run combined time of 57:29 seconds. However, the remainder of the Silver Star skiers had a dismal day. Lake Louise's team of Ladd Snowell, Jeff Booth, and Eric Schindler won top prize of $1,200 with a combined time of 1:28:39.

More than three seconds back, in runner-up spot, was Don MacLachlan, Rick Receveur and Tom Buckley, from Lake Eden.

Big White's Ken France, Billie Scott, and Kent Craig placed third in 1:33:28.

FASTEST MAN
The fastest men's combined time, of 50:500

seconds, was established by France.

The best Silver Star threesome could do was 34th. The remaining local teams placed 38th and 45th.

The teams represented ski areas from the four western provinces which have featured the Molson program during the 1977-78 season. Each of the 168 racers had two runs — one on each course of the dual slalom. Both courses contained two five-foot jumps.

Two above-the-knee amputee skiers foreran the course.

SEASON ENDS
Meanwhile, ski season officially ended at Silver Star, on Sunday, with Punner Days. About 500 skiers were adorned in costumes and took part in several off-beat events.

Silver Star Manager Woody Woodman, and his family, led the Boyds of Tillikum Valley for first place in the family, dual slalom, event.

Morden wins one race — Jets capture meet

Vernon's Jim Morden placed in seven events at the Southside Institutional Swim Meet held over the weekend in Edmonton.

Top swimmers from throughout Western Canada took part in the two-day event.

Morden won the 50m freestyle in a time of 28:11 seconds.

He placed second in four other events — 100m freestyle, 100m butterfly, 100m breaststroke, and 200m breaststroke.

In the 200m individual medley and 200m freestyle, Morden finished in third spot.

He has been named to the B.C. team which will compete in a west coast championship meet, April 22 and 23, in Stockton, Calif.

KOKANEES SECOND
Meanwhile, Vernon Kokanees placed second in the four-day Kelowna-Punnett Spring Meet held over the weekend.

The host, Kelowna Aqua Jets, took top honors with 939 points. Kokanees finished with 860 points, followed by Summerland 490, and Cranbrook 290.

Kokanees won four aggregates at the meet.

BETTON SCORES TWO

Rovers on top of soccer league

Al Betton scored his second goal of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining in the second-half, to give Vernon Rovers a 2-2 victory over Penticton Moltons in Okanagan Senior Soccer League action Sunday in the Peach City.

in a perfect cross from Monty Mitchell. Rovers spent the entire 1977 season in the league basement.

In other games Sunday, National Hotel fought to a 1-1 deadlock with Osoyoos. Kelowna Kickers doubled Rutland Teamlers 2-1. Kelowna Kickers doubled Keloomps blasted Osoyoos 4-2 and Cliff Dangelmann scored three goals to lead Kamloops to an easy victory over the league's only new team. Action resumes next Sunday with five games on the schedule.

battled through a scoreless first-half before Rutland took the lead.

PENALTY SHOT
Rialtors took a 1-0 lead over Nationals after 40 minutes. However, a penalty shot by Bob Scott evened the score before half-time and the clubs fought through a scoreless second-half.

Jeff Dangelmann scored three goals to lead Kamloops to an easy victory over the league's only new team. Action resumes next Sunday with five games on the schedule.

The victory, Rovers' second in as many starts, moves them into sole possession of first-place.

Heading the list of new prospects is Duncan McDonald, up from the Armstrong Intermediate. McDonald, 6'3", saw considerable action with the senior club in 1977 and didn't look out of place.

Bronson said, "With Dan Buchanan back in town, and our speed, I think we might surprise some people."

Bronson said, "I'm sure Buchanan will not have their first arena practice until next Sunday, however, anyone wanting to tryout is invited to gym workout on Wednesday, at A. L. Fortune School, in Kenderly."

The senior lacrosse season gets under way May 6, in Armstrong, when defending league champion Vernon Tigers take on the I.L.A. all-stars.

Cents capture opener

CALGARY (CP) — Merril Centennials relied on six different scorers to defeat Calgary Canucks 4-1 in a Centennial Cup Western semifinal game Sunday night.

Centennials, who eliminated Richmond Keyes to win the British Columbia Junior Hockey League title, took a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series which was embroiled in controversy before the first puck was dropped.

Ke. Stroud, Pat Rabbit, Bruce Stephenson, Steve Dale Ames and Glen Johnson shared the scoring for Merril.

Brian Baseman and Murray Brunwell getting the others.

The BCHJHL had announced Merril would play against Calgary of the Alberta Junior Hockey League in a bid to force the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association (CAHA) to reverse an executive decision and sanction the playoff.

Sanction is required to make this and any ensuing series official as a Western Canada playoff, but such sanction has not been granted.

The CAHA refused to over-ride a decision by the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association (AAHA) preventing Calgary from entering playoffs leading to the Centennial Cup national tier-two junior championship.

The AAHA had said Calgary, AJHL champions, could not enter playoffs because league officials — referees and linemen — were disregarding a CAHA directive that they wear helmets.

The officials had said they would adopt helmets when they were satisfied with the quality of head-gear available.

Officials wore helmets for Sunday's game.

Merril outshot Calgary 40-42 and referee Orle Mandryk assessed eight penalties, each team getting three minors and one major.

Rocks looking for good year

Armstrong Shamrocks, of the Interior Hockey Association, will have a young, fast team this season.

Team captain Tim Bronson told the Daily News the team will be almost identical to last season.

Bronson said, "We'll have pretty well the same personnel, but we're looking for big improvements from some of the guys."

It was rumored captain Lance McGregor was going to retire, however, the 10-year veteran was at an outdoor workout on Sunday.

Bronson said, "Naturally we're happy to have Lance out. He really settles down the younger guys."

LOOKING GOOD
Two of the players who have looked good in workouts are 5'2" forward Jim Maundrell and Kim Fulton.

Bronson said, "Maundrell has put on some weight and we're hoping he'll be more aggressive this year. He has all the tools to be a star."

Player wins 42nd Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — "I was choking," Gary Player murmured. "I was jumping around with myself."

The intense little South African was describing his minute wait when, after raring his horse on seven of his last 10 holes an eagle putt recored-tying 6. Sunday, he watched three golfers try to send the 42nd Masters tournament into the sudden-death playoff he so detests.

One by one they came to the 18th green at the Augusta National Golf Club and failed. First, defending champion Tom Watson sent his approach shot into the gallery and eventually missed the 10-foot putt he needed. Then Rod Pumphrey hit his 24-footer an inch to the right of the hole. And finally, U.S. Open champion Hubert Green, the frontrunner most of the way and the last man on the course, ran his three-footer just the hole.

Player, waiting in the clubhouse, stood up to accept congratulations for his third victory in the Masters and ninth in the so-called Big Four of golf. A winner here in 1961 and 1974, the 42-year-old player has won the U.S. Open, the PGA title and the British Open three times.

SETS NEXT GOAL

Player was quick to set his next target at the moment. "I would like to win a second U.S. Open," he declared. "My target at the moment, though, is to win the British Open." Player said he is more than a little bothered to read in U.S. newspapers that he is past his prime because he hasn't won on the American tour since 1974.

"I'm winning all over the damned world," he said. "I've won 112 tournaments. He shot 72-72-68 the first three rounds.

His final birdies included puts of 30 feet on the fourth hole, 12 feet on the 25th, 26th, 10th, and 15 on the 12th, 16th and 18th. He tapped in shortputts on Nov. 2, 18 and 13.

The virtual "gimme" on the par-five, 485-yard 13th came after he left an eagle putt on the 11th.

His only bogey came at No. 7, when he missed a 10-foot fowler after coming out of a bunker.

Medicine Hat in Broncos are out

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Lethbridge Broncos, needing a victory to reach the Central Division final in the Western Canada Hockey League, gave up five unanswered goals in the second period and lost 7-4 to Billings Highloms in one of three games played Sunday.

In other playoff action, Brandon Wheat Kings set the stage for an exciting first round of the Eastern Division round-robin, beating Flin Flon Bombers 8-6, and the Calgary Cougars defeated New Westminster Bruins 7-3 in a game that had no effect on the Western Division standings.

The Broncos ended the week final with a 3-5 record. Medicine Hat Tigers also ended the series at 3-3 record, but had a better goal differential against record, allowing them to advance to the best-of-seven division final against Billings, which ended at 6-2.

Doug Robb and Cal Redmond led the Broncos with two goals each, while Mike Toal, Harvey Potts and Don Newhouse added one goal apiece.

Rod Guilmet, Darryl Sutter, Eric Ingartfield and Steve Tambellini scored for the hometown Broncos.

NEED DECISIVE WIN

In Brandon, the victory for the Wheat Kings evened their record at 4-4 and left Flin Flon at 4-3. Flin Flon faces Regina Pats tonight in a game which could leave all three teams with 4-4 records. The Pats can advance to the finals only by beating the Bombers by at least six goals.

Bill Deriango led the Wheat Kings with three goals, including two in the space of seven seconds, setting a league record. He set a previous record of eight goals in one game when he scored five in a 7-1 victory over New Westminster Bruins in a Western Division game.

Brian Propp got two for Brandon and team-mates Kim Lockyer and Allan Kelly Short and Wes Coulton added the others.

The Bombers had two-goal performances from Mel Blivek and Glen Hicks, while Steve Blue and Mario Bokich added singles.

In New Westminster, Victoria Cougars jumped to an early lead and led 7-0 before the home-town Bruins hit the scoreboard.

Geordie Robertson and Curt Frazer each scored twice for the Cougars with singles coming from Dennis Fenske, Bob Janach and Bill Johnson.

END OF THE ROAD

John Paul Kelly scored for the Bruins, who ended the series with a 4-4 record. Victoria, with a 4-4 record, faces New Westminster in the Eastern Division final, opening Tuesday.

Portland Winter Hawks finished the division at 1-7. Saturday, New Westminster eliminated Portland, edging the Cougars by Florent Robidoux, Kent Reardon, John Grogdnick and Neil Macdonore.

CAPS BLANK SEATTLE

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Vancouver Whitecaps, getting aggressive play from their midfielders, shut out Seattle Sounders 3-0 Sunday in their first place in the Western Division of the National Soccer League.

The win brought 11,252 spectators to the Whitecaps, who lost 4-1 to San Diego Sockers in their league debut on Oct. 10. Seattle, which earned the maximum nine points for a 3-0 victory last week over Colorado Caribou.

Forward Kevin Hector opened the scoring at 10 minutes when he headed a sliding pass from midfielder Steve Kerker past Seattle goalkeeper Tony Campbell.

The Whitecaps were short-handed at 33 minutes when Bob Lemarchand fired a 30-yard shot low to Kerker's left to give Vancouver a 2-0 first-half lead.

The virtual "gimme" on the par-five, 485-yard 13th came after he left an eagle putt on the 11th.

His only bogey came at No. 7, when he missed a 10-foot fowler after coming out of a bunker.

Rutherford topping 28 shots for his first shutout of the season, before 18,374 screaming partisans.

The rest of the games Sunday meant virtually nothing but there were some interesting upsets. Minnesota North Stars edged Philadelphia Flyers 3-1 in Washington. Capitals cooled off Atlanta Flames 4-2, New York Islanders drubbed Boston Bruins 5-2. Buffalo Sabres nipped Toronto Maple Leafs 3-2. New York Rangers outscored Chicago Black Hawks 3-2 and Pittsburgh Penguins took Cleveland Barons 2-1.

CLINIC SECOND PLACE

Saturday night, Colorado Rockies clinched second place in the Smythe Division by defeating St. Louis Blues 5-2 while Los Angeles Kings, battling for second in the Norris section, were defeated by Vancouver Canucks 5-2.

Washington dumped Pittsburgh 6-4, Atlanta and Philadelphia fought to a 1-1 draw. Chicago downed Minnesota 4-2. Boston topped Toronto 3-1 and the Islanders hammered the Rangers 7-2 in their Saturday action.

The season is over for six clubs while divisional champions Montreal, Boston, the Norris section's Detroit and the Smythe section's Chicago are still in the hunt for a playoff spot.

Only the play of goalies Gary Bromley and Joe Daley kept the Jets' close on the scoreboard.

The line of Andre Lacroix, Don Laury and John Tonelli gave Houston four goals, Lacroix scoring two of them. Lynn Fowles scored twice for the Jets who often gave the puck on bad passing in their own zone.

Dave Gorman and Steve Alley scored three goals each to lead Birmingham to victory at Indianapolis.

best-of-three preliminary series.

Philadelphia is matched against the Rockies. Buffalo will battle the Rangers, the Leafs take on Los Angeles and Detroit will meet Atlanta. The series gets underway Tuesday night in Philadelphia, Buffalo, Toronto and Atlanta.

The Red Wings, who won just 16 games last season, scored their victory total to 32 this year under new coach Bobby Kromm.

There were times last season the Wings were playing before crowds under 5,000 but that changed with the aggressive hockey Kromm had his charges play and Detroit is making its first appearance in the playoffs since 1970.

The Canadiens finished with 50 victories, one fewer than last year when they set an NHL record and 10 losses, two more than last season. They did finish the season with one record — a 26-game undefeated streak which began last Dec. 18 in Philadelphia and was ended by the Jets in Montreal in 67 games and their first on the road since Nov. 17, 1978.

Toronto's Mike Palmeter blanked them 1-0. Buffalo's Don Edwards shut out the Canadiens last Oct. 30 in Montreal for the Canadiens' only other shutout defeat this season.

The North Stars, who finished with the worst record in the league, got two goals from Glen Sharpley in the first period en route to their second victory in three games at the Spectrum this season.

The Capitals, with the second worst record, closed out their season with four victories and two ties in seven games with their back-to-back triumphs. Gerry Meenan scored twice to lead the Capitals past the Flames, who had 10 victories and two draws in their last 11 games.

In Boston, the Bruins lost for the third time in four games against the Islanders this season.

"It's not that they played good, we played rotten," said Boston coach Don Cherry after watching his club lose two of its last three games

Coast finalists decided

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Weekend victories carried Nanaimo Clippers and Bellingham Blazers into the Coastal Division final of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League, but the Washington State club did it the hard way.

The Blazers needed four unanswered goals in the third period to score a 7-5 win over Abbotsford Flyers in the deciding game of the best-of-seven semi-final series. The Flyers forced the seventh game with a 3-3 win in Abbotsford Saturday.

Nanaimo Clippers, who finished Bellingham for first place in the division, sailed to an 8-3 win over Langley Lords, taking the series four games to one.

Playing in front of 2,100 fans in Bellingham, the teams were tied 1-1 after one period but Abbotsford went ahead 3-3 after two.

Third-period scoring, however, was all Bellingham. Dave Brockhill got the winner at 8:35 and then scored an empty-net goal after the visitors pulled goalie Tom Semenuch in favor of a sixth attacker.

Don Anderson, Ken Berry and Fred Fraser scored for the Clippers. Glen Anderson and Werner led the visitors. Rick Amann, who ended the series with a 4-4 record, faces New Westminster in the Eastern Division final, opening Tuesday.

Portland Winter Hawks finished the division at 1-7. Saturday, New Westminster eliminated Portland, edging the Cougars by Florent Robidoux, Kent Reardon, John Grogdnick and Neil Macdonore.

The Bulls got again: Winnipeg Jets in the best-of-seven quarter-final starting Friday in Winnipeg.

The quarter-final series will see Edmonton's visiting New England Whalers, also starting Friday, and Quebec Nordiques against the Aeros at Houston starting Sunday.

The team with the best season record among the quarter-final survivors gets a bye into the final while the other two play a best-of-seven semi-final.

Birmingham clinched sixth place Sunday with a 9-7 win over Indianapolis Racers while Cincinnati Stingers defeated Quebec 6-2 and Houston beat Winnipeg 5-4.

On Saturday, Houston edged Cincinnati 5-4 and Quebec beat Indianapolis 7-3.

Seventh-place Cincinnati could still be Birmingham on points by winning its last game tonight at New England but, in the event of such a tie, Birmingham gets the nod by virtue of its 7-4 advantage in season-play against the Stingers.

Indianapolis is the other team out of the playoffs, 20 points behind Cincinnati with one game remaining at New England on Tuesday.

JETS ON TOP

Winnipeg won the regular-season points race, finishing with a 90-28 record for 192 points, 13 ahead of the deciding game of the best-of-seven series.

The season finale at Winnipeg was disappointing for a crowd of 10,240 fans who booed the Jets for some sloppy play against Houston.

Only the play of goalies Gary Bromley and Joe Daley kept the Jets' close on the scoreboard.

The line of Andre Lacroix, Don Laury and John Tonelli gave Houston four goals, Lacroix scoring two of them. Lynn Fowles scored twice for the Jets who often gave the puck on bad passing in their own zone.

Dave Gorman and Steve Alley scored three goals each to lead Birmingham to victory at Indianapolis.

the Sages way to Quality Concrete

ONE STEP AT A TIME

THE THIRD STEP to quality concrete is actually the hub of the operation. Peggy Watney says at the control center of Sages Cement Products where she receives orders from customers, carries out any necessary metric conversions, fills out the delivery slips, coordinates the drivers with the batch man, answers the telephone and radio, serves customers at the counter and distributes information to the various departments. All of this and more in a continuing effort by Sages Cement Products to bring you Quality Concrete on time.
