

Kelowna thumps Canadians 6-2

Kelowna Buckaroos dumped Vernon Canadians 6-2 in a British Columbia Hockey League pre-season game Saturday night in Enderyn.

The game took place on Tuesday night in Kelowna.

Canadians' General Manager Sheldon Bloomer told the Daily News he was pleased with his team's performance, despite the loss.

Bloomer said, "It was our first exhibition game of the season and I thought our kids did quite well. We started training camp 10 days later than Kelowna — and it showed."

SHAKY START
Canadians, who got off to a shaky start and most of the game went on, Bucks jumped to an early 2-0 lead and led 6-1 after the second period.

Rick McNeely, with two goals, Darrell Kupa, Bob Wright, Tom Stranger, and Clem Labbe scored for Kelowna.

Dale Stous and Tom Ouchi replied for the Canadians.

Vernon had 10 local players in the line-up and most of them appear to have a good chance of making the club. Ouchi and defenceman Dave Schneider, in particular, were standouts.

Bloomer said, "We don't have any illusions that we have a great team right now, we know that and we're working on changes. We have a couple problems on defence, but we're working on them."

NEW DEFENCEMAN
At least one new rearguard will be in the line-up Tuesday. Eighteen-year-old Murray Blum, from Regina, arrived in Vernon over the weekend. Blum, weighs 180 pounds, spent last season with Regina Blues of the Saskatchewan Junior 'A' League. Another defenceman from Regina is expected to arrive in town this week.

Canadians are still hoping to get up to three veterans back from Western Hockey League camps as the teams train their rosters this week. Mike Withers in Medicine Hat, Mike Johnson in Edmonton, and Scott Cotens in Calgary, could possibly join Vernon.

PENALTIES GALORE
On Sunday night, Kelowna had little trouble hammering Penitents 10-5. However, the league's recent rulings to crack down on violence appeared to have little effect. The Bucks and Vees were assessed five game misconducts each.

On the coast, Langley Canadians defeated Delta Stars 10-7 in a penalty-filled game on Saturday night.

The teams split 20 minor penalties, while Delta took 11 fighting majors and the 10-minute misconducts. Langley also had a game misconduct.
