Canadians drop pair to league-leading Cents

By KEVIN MITCHELL
Daily News Staff
If there's one thing a B.C. Junior Hockey League team has to do in order to defeat the league-leading Merritt Centennials, it is hit them hard and over the weekend. Vernon Canadians' hitting wouldn't have shattered a carton of eggs.

The Canadians were clipped 3-2 by Joe Tennant's Centennials before almost 600 fans, at home, on Sunday night. The previous evening, in Merritt, the Cents posted a 7-6 victory.

Vernon narrowed the gap to 3-2 at 11:34 when Dean Hascarl connected from the slot.

With Smith on the bench for an extra attacker in the final minute, Canadians roamed dangerously around the Merritt net, but couldn't put anything past Polimatin.

The losses ended Vernon's modest win streak and three games and gives them five defeats in eight starts.

On Saturday, Barlett led the Cents with two goals while Ames, Bob Deschamps, Greg Aiken, Rick Norberg, and Danek added singles.
