Slumping teams meet head-on

Two struggling teams meet in B.C. Junior Hockey League action tonight, at 8 p.m., at the Civic Arena.

Vernon Canadians, who have lost two straight and haven't played well in three weeks, meet Revelstoke Bruins, losers of their last 11 starts.

Canadians' Coach Greg Kvisle said he hopes his depleted troops can break out of their slump before Christmas. Kvisle said, "We're down to 15 bodies, but that is no excuse – we're not playing well."

"We're looking for help right now so these guys will have to work for their jobs after Christmas."

Canadians lost defenceman Larry Pearson, who quit the team, and forward Brian Matthews, separated shoulder, last week.

Revelstoke, after winning 14 of its first 24 games, has hit the skids. Bruins' last victory was in Vernon, in mid-November, when they blasted the Canadians 9-1.

Vernon has two more games before Christmas, on Friday when they entertain Kamloops Rockets and Saturday when the Rockets play host to the Canadians.

Osaka team here tonight

The Fujiidera Technical High School of Osaka, Japan, will battle the British Columbia Canada Games team in exhibition volleyball action tonight at Clarence Fulton Junior Secondary School.

The warm-up will start at 6:30 p.m., with the 'B' teams meeting at 7:30 p.m., and the main event at 8:30 p.m.

Vernon Volleyball Club Coach Denis Murdoch told the Daily News it should be an interesting match.

Murdoch said, "The Japanese team is loaded with talent, but I'm sure the B.C. boys will give them all they can handle."

VISITORS WIN

On Monday night, in Williams Lake, Fujiidera defeated B.C. 15-3, 16-14, 12-15, 8-15, and 15-9.

The match marked the first time a B.C. team had scored more than 10 points in a single game against the Japanese squad.

Murdoch said, "The secret of volleyball in Japan is training – they workout about 36 hours per week. They rely on speed, with a multiple attack system that utilizes a wide variety of plays."

FROM WINFIELD

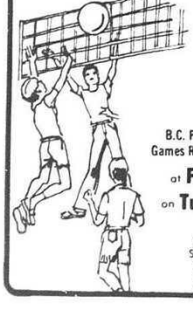

Mario Kusso and Cary Gatzke, both of Winfield, are the only Okanagan players on the B.C. team.

There will be 300-400 tickets available at the door and Murdoch advises spectators to arrive early. He said, "You'll get your money's worth watching these guys."

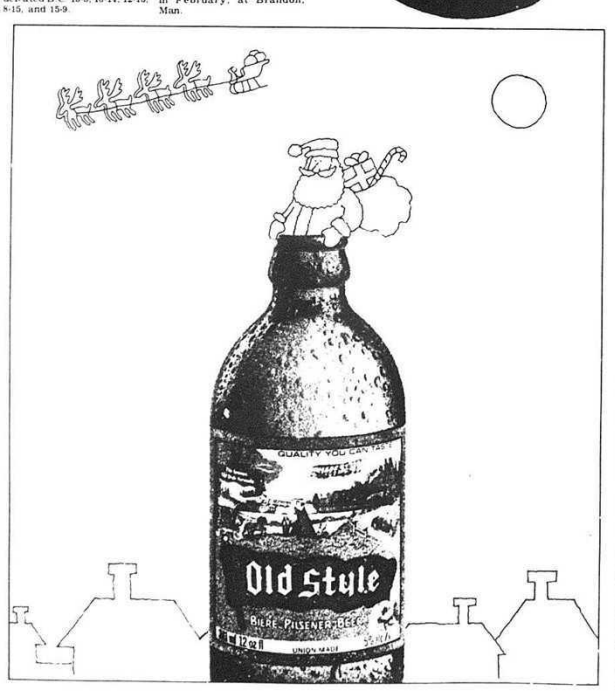

The B.C. team will compete in the Canada Winter Games, in February, at Brandon, Man.

The speedy Vernon Sport Cougars' left-winger has 47 points, three more than Gary Pearson, of Grindrod Elks. Pearson had led the scoring race since the first game of the season. However, Caldow erupted for two goals and four assists, in two games last weekend, to take over the lead.

Final league game before Christmas will be played Wednesday night in Westbank when the Packers host Grindrod Elks.

Diane runs away with 1978 award

By CHUCK SVOBODA
CP Sports Editor

Diane Jones-Konihowski, who turned in the world's best pentathlon performance of 1978 at the Commonwealth Games, is the runaway choice as Canada's woman athlete of the year.

The Edmonton track and field star received more than twice as many votes as her nearest competitor, golfer Cathy Sherk, in the annual year-end poll of sports writers and sportscasters conducted by The Canadian Press.

Sherk of Fonthill, Ont., won the Ontario, Canadian, United States and world amateur women's golf titles in 1978.

She placed second in the voting by a narrow margin over swimmer Wendy Quirk of Pointe Claire, Que., who won three gold medals at the Commonwealth Games.

Jones-Konihowski, 27, will become the first recipient of the Bobbie Rosenfeld Award to be presented in conjunction with the Sports Federation of Canada awards in Toronto Jan. 13.

It will be the first time CP has presented an award to the winner of its annual poll, first conducted in 1953.

The award, in the form of a commemorative plaque, honors the late Bobbie Rosenfeld, the all-round athlete best known for her gold-medal performance in the sprints at the 1928 Olympics. In 1950, she was named woman athlete of the half century in the CP poll.

STAR OF MEET

Jones-Konihowski was the Canadian star of the Commonwealth Games track competition in Edmonton last August, winning the gruelling five-event pentathon with the second-highest point total ever recorded in the event.

She won four of the five pentathlon events and was second in the other. Her Commonwealth and Games record of 4,768 points was just 71 points short of the world record held by Nadyezhda Tkachenko of the Soviet Union.

Diane won the 100-metre hurdles in 13.85 seconds, threw the shot 14.87 metres, set a personal best of 1.88 metres in the high jump, won the long jump with 6.41 metres and clocked two minutes 12.1 seconds in the 800 metres, where she was second in her heat.

"This is all very encouraging," Diane said after accepting her gold medal from the Queen. "I took it pretty easy (in training) this year and that's what makes it seem so frightening to do this well.

DIANE JONES-KONIHOWSKI
. . . best in Canada

"I know I can run faster in the hurdles. I know I can throw farther in the shot—I know I can do better."

Jones-Konihowski received 49 first-place votes, 14 seconds and 13 thirds. A total of 98 ballots were cast.

Based on a 3-2-1 valuation, Jones-Konihowski collected 183 points compared with 107 for Sherk.

The amateur golfing champion, who plans to turn professional, was picked first on 21 ballots, second on 16 and third on 12.

Quirk, who also had a silver and a bronze medal at the Commonwealth Games and two bronze medals in relays at the world swimming championships, had 92 points from 11 firsts, 20 seconds and 19 thirds.

Others who received first-place votes were professional golfer Sandra Post of Oakville, Ont., who won two pro events this year; gymnast Elfi Schlegel of Toronto, Commonwealth Games gold medallist; Susan Nattrass of Edmonton who won her fourth world women's trapshooting title; and synchronized swimmer Helen Vanderburg of Calgary who won two gold medals at the world championships.

Jones-Konihowski, a University of Alberta lecturer, has been an international competitor since the early 1970s and won the pentathlon at the 1975 Pan-American Games in Mexico.

She is the wife of John Konihowski who plays football with Edmonton Eskimos. After her pentathlon win, Diane told reporters: "Next to marrying a Ukrainian Eskimo, this is by far the most exciting thing that's ever happened to me."

Dolphins hammer New England 23-3

MIAMI (AP) — A dazed New England Patriots team was no match for the masterful passing of Bob Griese in Miami Dolphins' 23-3 National Football League victory Monday night.

Griese collected 171 passing yards with 12 connections in 13 attempts, including touchdown tosses to Nat Moore and Duriel Harris, as the Dolphins won the home-field advantage in their Dec. 24 wild-card playoff game with Houston.

The game had no meaning for the Patriots, who clinched the American Football Conference East Division a week ago and took the field after a day of traumatic events.

Owner Bill Sullivan suspended coach Chuck Fairbanks on Monday afternoon after Fairbanks revealed he had accepted the head coaching job at the University of Colorado. A delegation of players asked Sullivan to rescind the suspension but Sullivan refused.

Bruins blast visiting Soviets

VANCOUVER (CP) — New Westminster Bruins tuned up for the world junior hockey championships with a surprising 7-2 thrashing of the touring Moscow Selects before 12,650 fans Monday night at the Pacific Coliseum.

The Western Hockey League team, defending Memorial Cup champion, leaves tonight for Europe and represents Canada in the world tournament later this month in Sweden.

New Westminster was bolstered by eight players from other Canadian major junior teams as the Bruins defeated the Soviet Union team for the third straight year in exhibition play here.

Gary Lupul of Victoria Cougars scored twice for the Bruins, with John Ogrodnick, Larry Melnyk, Kent Reardon, Ray Allison and Yvan Joly adding one each. Moscow got goals from Alexandr Pavlov and Viktor Pachkalin.

The loss was the second for Moscow in seven games against WHL competition. Edmonton Oil Kings, bolstered by several New Westminster players, defeated the Selects in the opening game of their tour earlier in the month.

New Westminster had lost its last four WHL games, but the Bruins were much stronger with eight additions in their lineup. Allison is from Brandon Wheat Kings and Joly plays for Ottawa 67s.

Tom Semenchuk started in goal for the Bruins and allowed one goal before being replaced midway through the second period by Roland Melanson of Windsor Spitfires. The Bruins outshot Moscow 31-24.

The Bruins wore their Team Canada uniforms as they took period leads of 5-1 and 7-2 with their hustle which produced many scoring opportunities against the travel-weary Selects.

New Westminster scored on half of its six shots on starting goaltender Alexandr Pashkov of the Selects, who was replaced by Sergy Balinkov at 14:54 of opening period with the Bruins leading 3-1.

Two New Westminster goals in the first period came on power plays—one, a blazing point shot by Melnyk—came seven seconds after a Soviet penalty. Moscow took two of the three minor penalties called by referee Joe Wensink.

Wilson gets starting nod

VANCOUVER (CP) — Goaltender Dunc Wilson will rejoin the Vancouver Canucks for a National Hockey League game tonight in Minnesota.

A spokesman for the Canucks said Wilson likely will draw the starting assignment against the North Stars after playing three games for Dallas Black Hawks, Vancouver's farm team in the Central Hockey League.
