

Royals closer after 13-4 win

U.L. Washington was hitting home runs left and right against the Oakland A's yesterday.

Getting his first major league homers at a most opportune time for Kansas City Royals, Washington first belted a three-run shot from the left side of the plate, then belted another three-blast from the right.

The Royals moved to within two games of the pace-setting California Angels, who dropped a 3-1 decision to Texas Rangers.

Meanwhile, Baltimore Orioles whose game against Cleveland was rained out, still managed to clinch a tie for the AL East title when the replacement Milwaukee Brewers lost 5-2 to Minnesota Twins.

The Orioles can clinch the divisional crown with one victory today or another loss by Milwaukee.

"This is definitely the biggest thrill of my major league career," said Washington after his big night. It was rewarded by a $100,000 bonus.

BUCKS EDGE BLAZERS

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Kelowna Buckaroos scored four unanswered goals in the third period Friday night to begin the British Columbia Junior Hockey League season with a 4-1 victory over Bellingham Blazers.

Three of Kelowna's third-period goals came in a 2-1-3 minute span when the Blazers ran into penalty trouble.

Bruce Cullen led the winners with two goals. The other marksmen were Eric Sanford, Brent Shaw and Randy Endo, who scored the winner from a go-ahead scramble.

Ferry Braun scored twice for Bellingham which took a 4-1 lead early in the third period. Henri Gomez and Chilliwick Bryn play goal for the other Blazers goals.

Kelowna was outshot 34-24 while Bellingham took seven of 12 minor penalties and the teams split two fighting major penalties.

"Tonight, the Blazers meet the Vees at 'Pendion and Chilliwick Bryn play goal to Nanaimo Clippers. North Vancouver Caps visit Bellingham on Sunday night."

Ken Landreux hit a two-run homer with one out in the Minnesota ninth and Butch Wynegar followed with a three-run homer, rallying the Twins over Milwaukee.

Moore Haas carried a four-run lead into the ninth, but Roy Smalley walked leading off the inning. After a triple play by Toronto led into the 15th homer to tie the game 2-2 before Wynegar followed with his seventh.

Tom Underwood and Tom Buskey combined on an eight-hitter to help Toronto beat New York. Underwood scattered six hits in working seven innings while Buskey carried his seventh save pitching the last two innings.

The game was highlighted by a triple play by Toronto in the seventh inning, killing off a Yankee threat with men on first and second.

Carl Yastrzemski drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single in the first inning, bringing Boston over Detroit. Rookie John Tudor allowed six hits and one unearned run in becoming the first Boston left-handed starter to win a game at Fenway Park since Bill Lee did it on July 15, 1978. It was Tudor's first major league victory against Pittsburgh.

White Sox 3 Mariners 4. Chet Lemon's three-run double keyed a five-run third inning that helped Chicago beat Seattle. The uprising enabled rookie left-hander Steve Trout to improve his record to 10-8. Willie Horton had a two-run homer for the Mariners.

Howe remains undecided. HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Gordie Howe said Friday his decision as to whether he will play with Hartford Whalers in the National Hockey League this season rests entirely with him.

He said he will make the decision at the end of the team's training camp.

Howe, pro hockey's all-time leading scorer, suffered spells of dizziness late last year and has undergone an extensive battery of tests this summer to determine whether he can play.

Astros and Expos improve standing

It was a classic matchup of pitchers in series that probably will help determine one of the combatants in the National League playoffs.

Seaver, likewise, said he tried to stay cool after learning a lesson from a similar confrontation with Richard on Sept. 11. The Reds won that game 9-7 long after Seaver had departed.

The Astros continue the series today with the Reds' Mike LaCoss facing 10-game winner Joe Niekro. The series winds up on Monday.

In the other divisional contest, Montreal Expos picked up another half game on Pittsburgh Pirates by default. The Expos' game at Philadelphia Phillies was rained out and will be played as part of a doubleheader today. The Pirates, meanwhile, lost 2-0 to Chicago Cubs and now trail Montreal by a half game.

The 28-year-old Richard topped through 11 innings. He escaped a couple of early jams, yielded just seven hits and struck out 15, equaling his career high. The Reds scored two runs off him.

Seaver, now 34, went nine innings. He scattered eight hits and allowed two runs, one unearned. He fanned five.

Neither, however, was around in the 13th inning when Bruce Bochy, who came in for Seaver, yielded just seven hits and struck out 15, equaling his career high. The Reds scored two runs off him.
