In other games, league champion Kelowna Kickers topped Kamloops from Mass. 1-0. Kelowna Zedans blanked Kamloops 2-0. Penticton Moltons shutout Osoyoos 5-0. Kelowna Temblers beat Vernon Rovers 2-1.

FIRST GOAL
United took a 1-0 lead at the 18-minute mark when Andy Miller scored a perfect cross from centre-forward Gary Lang who headed a shot past National goalkeeper Bob Mann. That goal gave Lang the league scoring title with 19 in 18 games. Twelve minutes later, Lang intercepted a pass-back from Marty Stein. Mann made the save on Lang's shot, but Miller beat everyone to the rebound and put it in the net.

HIGH SHOOT
In the second-half, United applied constant pressure but was unable to score. National got its lone goal at the 72-minute mark when Tim Albom hit a high shot over goalkeeper Terry Schley. Schley got a piece of the ball, but failed to get it over the crossbar.

Both clubs were vocal in their criticism of referee George Garrett. Garrett handed out three yellow cards against United.

After the game, veteran soccer player and supporter Kurt Wenzlaff presented the Most Sportsmanlike Player Award to Kelly Schley, of United.

Rovers used four ineligible players so they would be able National to claim third place Temblers.

Blazers strengthen hold by hammering Chilliwack

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
The Vernon Blazers each scored two goals as Bellingham defeated Chilliwack 2-1 in British Columbia Junior Hockey League action Sunday night to hold on to first place in the Coastal division — four points ahead of the Colts.

In other games Sunday, Penticton Knights defeated Merritt Centennials 7-5 and Kamloops Rockets and Nanaimo Clippers played to a 6-6 tie.

In Saturday's games, Kamloops edged Chilliwack 2-1. Abbotsford Flyers defeated Richmond Kickers 4-2. Kelowna Buckaroos trounced Penticton 11-2 and Nanaimo defeated Bellingham 4-1.

In Bellingham, Mike Ferris, Dave Berry, Ian Barnaby, Foster Knepper, Don MacIsaac, Dave Anderson and Tony Camusola added singles for the Blazers who led period totals of 3-1 and 6-1.

Chris Gurnea and George McVittie tallied for the Colts who managed only 18 shots on Bellingham goalie John DeGan.

The Blazers weren't as fortunate Saturday night as John Newberry scored three goals and Tom Irving twice to pace the Clippers.

Tamasz Ferris, Tom McMurphy and Dave Coburn scored for Bellingham while Rick Siemens led the Colts to a 2-1 victory for Nanaimo.

SCORERS
In Penticton, Greg Egan scored three goals, two of them on power plays, to lead Merritt Centennials 7-5 and Kamloops Rockets and Nanaimo Clippers played to a 6-6 tie.
